Dedication

It has been said that some people strengthen the society in which they live just by being the kind of people they are. One could not make a better reference to Mr. Laird Smith. Mr. Smith is Director of Development and Alumni Relations and also Director of Plant Operations. He serves as the school representative to the Alumni Association and has been instrumental in raising funds for the new campus additions in a highly successful and cost efficient Major Funds Campaign. As alumnus of MBA and graduate of Vanderbilt University, Mr. Smith is one of the school's greatest supporters. He is never too busy to lend a helping hand to mothers working on the Spaghetti Supper, student organizations, coaches and managers, or an editor in need. He is always seen before, during, and long after football games, art shows, dances, and other school events to make sure everything runs smoothly. His hard work is a reflection of his love for the school and his concern that everything we do be a reflection of our high standards of excellence. Because of his contributions and great dedication to MBA, we, the yearbook staff and students of MBA, are proud and honored to dedicate the 1984 BELL to Mr. Laird Smith.

Preface

Contained herein is an overview of Montgomery Bell Academy's 117th year, a singular view formulated by the various efforts of those who have made the BELL a reality. The nature of this overview is appropriate since this particular year is made distinct from all others at MBA by those who have played a role in it. Similarly, the experience of each individual during these same nine months has been different, and his perspective of MBA is necessarily unique. At the same time, each young man has shared the philosophy, routine, and traditions which are the foundation upon which MBA's success rests. It is our hope that this year's BELL will repeatedly serve as a catalyst to kindle the only truly worthy record of a year on the Hill, the memories of those who experienced it.

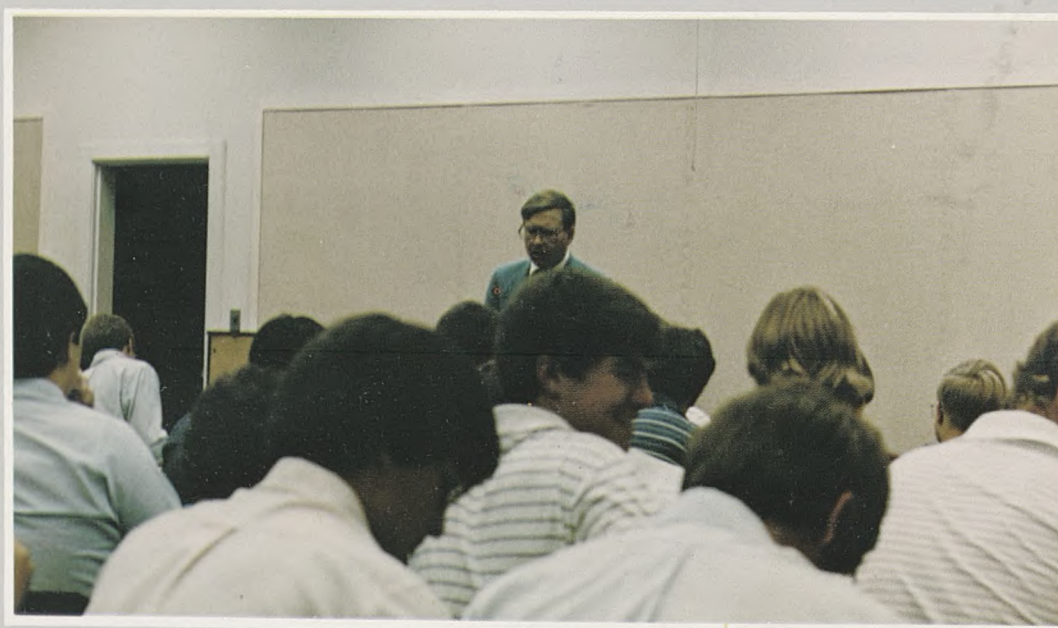

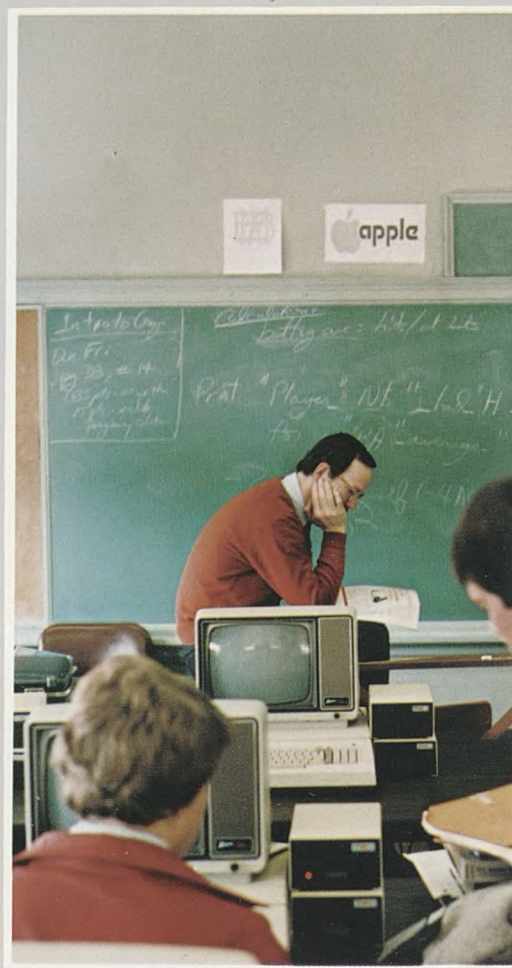

"That a house be provided for the academy
if not in the town, not many miles from it, the situation high and dry, and if it may be, not far from a river, having a garden, orchard, meadow, and a field or two."
—Benjamin Franklin

"Instruction increases worth, and right discipline strengthens the heart."
—Horace

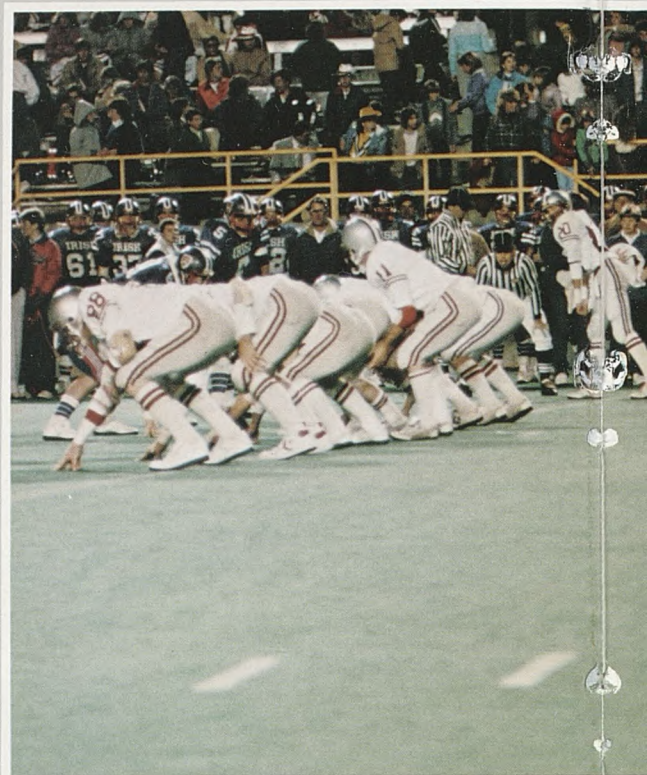

"If you are not afraid to just go out and compete, then you will run your best race. But if you go out with a fear of something, then you have lost the race before you start."
—Jim Ryun

"Reading maketh a full man, conference a ready man, and writing an exact man."
—Francis Bacon

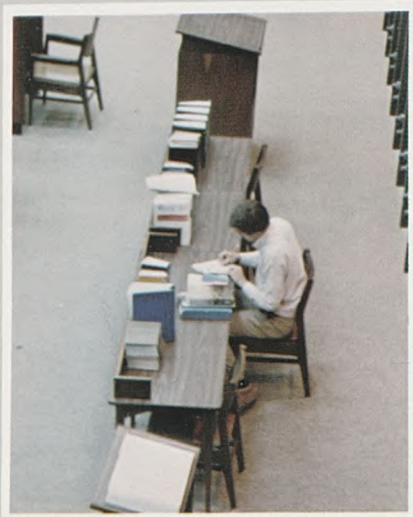

"I count myself in nothing else so happy
As in a soul remembering my good friends."

ADMINISTRATION

Headmaster Gordon E. Bondurant can surely look upon his first five years at the Hill with a sense of accomplishment, for during this time, MBA has seen great change in many of its various aspects. Throughout this period, Mr. Bondurant has been ever-conscious of maintaining MBA's high standards of excellence. In the academic sphere, for example, Mr. Bondurant has sought to keep the traditional MBA curriculum current by adding ample computer courses and facilities. Mr. Bondurant has also solicited student opinion in making certain decisions. This year, he instituted the Headmaster's Council, a group of seniors, to help evaluate ideas under consideration and to serve as another means of discovering areas of MBA which could use improvement. Mr. Bondurant also returned to the classroom this year, teaching an Algebra course. Mr. Bondurant was headmaster at Darlington School in Georgia before coming to MBA. He holds a B.A. from Davidson and a M.A. from UT Chattanooga.

Assistant Headmaster Michael Drake, in addition to his administrative duties, has served as the personal college counselor to every Junior and Senior for several years. It is his expressed goal to try to get every senior into the school of his choice, regardless of the odds. For this reason, he and Mr. Bondurant journeyed to the Ivy Leagues this past fall to acquaint them with MBA. Mr. Drake also serves as the Senior Class advisor, a role which includes the unenviable task of getting negligent seniors to send in college applications and the near-impossible task of keeping the "slide" under control. Amid this myriad of responsibilities, Mr. Drake manages to teach a popular 1st period AP American History course. His great rapport with the students is well-suited to his duties. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia and of George Peabody College for Teachers.

Dr. Harold Crowell, the Dean of Students and Faculty, is one of the busiest men on campus. He is the Chairman of the Science Department, teaching all of the Physics courses, the Student Council advisor, the annual advisor, and an advisor to the Junior Class. Dr. Crowell is a very effective disciplinarian, intolerant of improper behavior, but willing to review individual cases when fairness is in question. Frequent trips to help at a local soup kitchen, initiated by Dr. Crowell through the Student Council, were a source of pride at MBA this year. His dedication to MBA is great, and his humor is operative always. Dr. Crowell received his B.S. from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, and his Ph.D. from Vanderbilt.

Dr. G. Edward Gaffney is the Head of the Junior School. He teaches Latin I to eighth graders and conducts a scholarly AP Latin class for high school students. Dr. Gaffney received his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. from Vanderbilt University. This past summer, he attended the prestigious American School of Classical Studies at Athens.

Mr. Laird Smith, as the Director of Development, has played a most instrumental role in the recent expansion of the school. Spearheading the fund-raising drive, he has helped ensure the continued growth and success of MBA. Mr. Smith is also the Director of the MBA-Wallace Alumni Association and the Director of Building and Grounds.

Mr. James A. Poston serves as MBA's Guidance Director. Mr. Poston teaches English I, English IV, and courses in speech and reading. He is very involved with theatre, sponsoring the Drama Club and directing a play every year. He is also the coach of the tennis team. Mr. Poston received his B.A. from Belmont College, and his M.A. from the George Peabody College.

Mr. John R. Bennett, the Director of Athletics, has a variety of duties on the Hill. He teaches courses in Algebra and Geometry, and is the head coach of the Varsity Baseball team and the Freshman Basketball squad. He is also sponsor to the Service Club and to SADD. Mr. Bennett has a B.E. from Vanderbilt University.

College Counseling

This year, in line with other fine college preparatory institutions throughout the country, MBA decided that it needed a position devoted exclusively to assisting Juniors and Seniors in deciding about and gaining acceptance to college. Accordingly, the Directorship of College Counseling was added, and Mr. Ed White was chosen to be that Director. Mr. White was previously the Dean of Admissions at Davidson College and the Director of Athletics at Southwestern. Mr. White, who will assume the reins of this duty more completely next year, has already worked a great deal with the Juniors. His goal has been to impress upon the students and parents the need for early "college thinking." In addition to having a conference with each student, he has conducted SAT and Achievement coaching sessions and has guided with Mr. Drake a tour of prestigious Southern universities. Mr. White received his B.A. from Davidson and his M.A. from the University of South Carolina.

Mr. Ed White

Office Staff

The receptionists, Mrs. Bradshaw, and Mrs. Morrissey in the Junior School, and the secretaries, Mrs. Garriott, Mrs. Liles, and Mrs. Kelton, play an essential role in MBA's daily operation. In addition to their duties for the administration, the secretaries perform innumerable daily tasks, such as keeping track of the comings and goings of each student, processing the school's massive quantity of correspondence, including that necessary for college-bound seniors, managing the student fund, and calculating grades. Furthermore, they are always willing to fulfill the various individual requests which are regularly made. The skill and patience with which they perform their work is commendable and does not go unnoticed.

Development Office

Mrs. Ruth O. Napier

The Development office, comprised of Mr. Laird Smith and Mrs. Ruth Napier, has made an enormous contribution to MBA in its relatively brief history. Extensive additions to the athletic and academic facilities and a healthier than ever endowment are testimony to a tremendously successful fund raising drive. Mrs. Napier has assisted Mr. Smith not only with the computerized records of the office, but also by working with alumni, whether by actual meetings, or by phone. The office has made tremendous strides in providing MBA with the capital essential for continued excellence in all areas of endeavor.

SUMMER'S HERE

by James Taylor

summer's here
i'm for that i've got my rubber sandals got my straw hat
i've got my cold beer
i'm just glad that it is here.

summer's here
that suits me fine
it may rain today
'cause i don't mind
it's my favorite time of the year and i'm glad that it's here.

old man wintertime
he goes so slow
it's ten degrees below, you know you can take your ice and snow and let my balmy breezes blow.

yeah, the water is cold but i've been in baby, lose the laundry and jump on in i mean all God's children got skin

summer's here
i'm for that i've got my rubber sandals
got my straw hat
drinking cold beer
man i'm glad that it's here
it's my favorite time of the year
and i'm glad that it's here, yeah.

This year's varsity football team achieved the most successful season in three years with a regular season record of 7-3 and a berth in the prestigious Butter Bowl. Furthermore, two of the three regular season defeats were to teams ranked in the top seven in the state. The somewhat surprising turnaround of MBA football was accompanied by a resurgence of Big Red spirit. Captain Parish Lentz, alternate captains Jeff Gaw and Matt Drury, two-way starters Larry Hayes and Will Nowell, defensive specialists John Moore, Robert Black, and Michal Pirrie, and offensive receivers John Morrissey and Harry Peffen all made outstanding contributions.

During the season the Big Red compiled some impressive statistics. The passing attack contributed over 1200 yards, while the running attack garnered another 1400 yards. The defense was tough all year with Robert Black being the leading tackler. John Moore and Larry Hayes were named to the All NIL Team. John Morrissey, Jeff Gaw, and Robert Black also received recognition. When asked about the year, Coach Owen said, "I was especially pleased with leadership displayed by the seniors this year. I think the key to this year was the consistent play of the defense. You win games with defense."

MBA .....17; SPRINGFIELD .....0

The Big Red scored 17 first half points and then made use of a stiff defense to procure this victory. The Big Red unleashed a devastating passing attack which accounted for 160 yards and one touchdown, a Gaw to Peffen pass covering 66 yards. Gaw plunged over from the one and David Muddiman booted a 25-yard field goal to complete the scoring. The defense allowed only three first downs and caused four fumbles. Peffen led all tacklers with 10 hits.

MBA ..... 0; OVERTON .....36

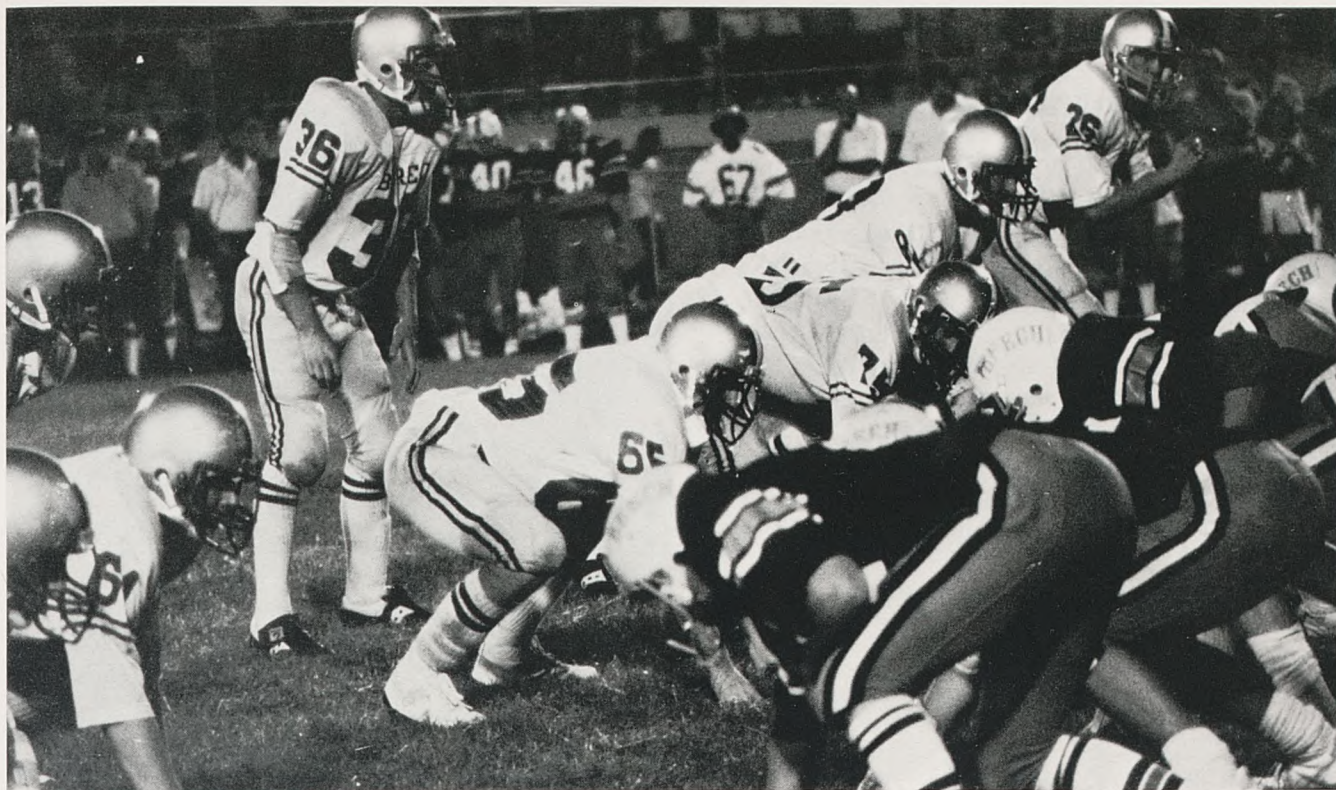

The next week, the Big Red faced the state's number one team, the Overton Bobcats. Larry Hayes caused a fumble deep in Overton territory, but the team was not able to capitalize. Soon, Overton's speed became too much for MBA, and they slowly took command of the game. This thrashing at the hands of Overton made the Big Red more determined to work hard and more hungry for victory.

MBA .....23; BEECH .....14

Jeff Gaw hit Matt Drury with a 4-yard pass, set up by a 35-yard John Morrissey reception for the first score. Two Gaw scoring plunges and a Muddiman field goal added to the scoring. Perhaps the most important play of the game was a Steve Rollins 32-yard run that set up the final score. John Moore, pitted against his father, Beech offensive coordinator Herschel Moore, blocked a punt. Robert Black had 18 hits, Larry Hayes had 2 deflections, and Mike Pirrie and Gaw each had an interception.

MBA ..... 34; HILLWOOD .....0

An old neighborhood rivalry turned into a thrashing as the Big Red offense ground out almost 300 yards. Harry Peffen, Buddy Knight, and Steve Rollins all scored on short runs set up by blocks from Robbie Bueno, Lentz, Hayes, Jimmy Moore, Drury, and Jay Owen. After a Hayes interception in the third quarter, Gaw hit Morrissey with a 35-yard TD strike. Davidson French completed the scoring with an unbelievable 56-yard jaunt. John Moore led all tacklers with 13 sticks.

MBA ..... 35; SMYRNA .....20

MBA's offense scored the first four times it had the ball. Jeff Gaw started the scoring with a 4-yard scamper. Matt Drury and Will Nowell then grabbed 10-yard scoring passes from Gaw. On the fourth possession, excellent blocks by Bueno, Lentz, and Hayes opened up Nowell for a 30-yard touchdown blast. In the second half, Buddy Knight threw a halfback pass to QB Gaw who hurried twenty yards for the score. John Moore was leading tackler again this week.

MBA ..... 41; PEARL-COHN .....6

Completing this three game offensive explosion, the Big Red totally demolished the Tigers. In the first quarter, a John Moore interception set up a Steve Rollins 12-yard scoring ramble. On MBA's next possession, Gaw threw a bomb to Morrissey covering forty yards for a TD. After a Gaw interception, David Muddiman punched it over from fifteen yards. On the next MBA drive, two catches by Matt Drury totaling sixty yards set up a 1-yard Gaw scoring plunge. Before the half ended, Muddiman raced over from three yards out making the score 35-6. MBA opened up the second half with an excellent drive that culminated in a Gaw to Peffen pass of fifteen yards. For the last one and a half quarters, the J.V. took over. Defensively, John Moore and Larry Hayes constantly pressured the quarterback. Moore, Dave Malone, and Mike Pirrie each had one interception, while Gaw and Robin Henderson had two apiece. The offensive line dominated, paving the way for Will Nowell's ninety yard rushing performance.

MBA ..... 14; HILLSBORO ..... 7

The first half was a defensive struggle with John Moore, Larry Hayes, and Buzz Frahn plugging up the holes. In the fourth quarter with Hillsboro ahead 7-0, Gaw found Morrissey open for a short pass. Morrissey proceeded to break two tackles before scampering into the end zone. On the next Burro possession, Paul Soper knocked the ball loose, and Mike Pirrie fell on the loose ball. A Gaw to Morrissey pass of fifteen yards on fourth down set up a Rollins 3-yard scoring crash. Robert Black had fifteen tackles as the team qualified for a bowl.

MBA ..... 15; ANTIOCH ..... 21

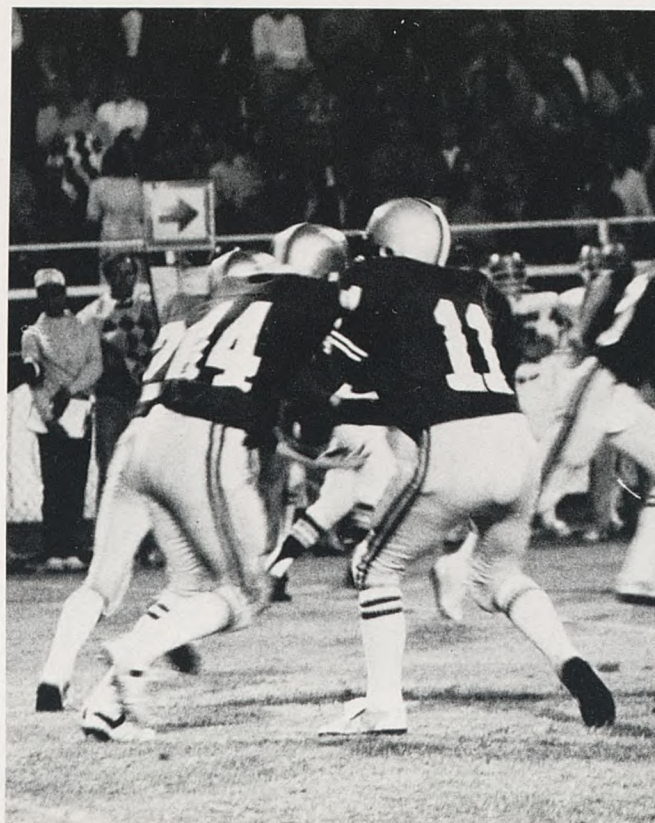

Homecoming turned out to be a disappointment. With Antioch ahead 7-0, Gaw found Morrissey for a 30-yard gain which set up a Rollins 3-yard ramble. In the second half, however, Antioch surged ahead on two long runs. With only a few minutes left in the game, the Big Red advanced eighty yards to pull within six. Matt Drury caught three key passes, and a Gaw to Morrissey pass of eight yards procured the score; but MBA could not get the ball back. Mike Pirrie, coming from his cornerback position, had an outstanding seventeen tackles, as Gaw, Hayes, and Black also had good defensive games.

MBA ..... 14; GLENCLIFF.....7

The offensive line of Jay Owen, Robby Bueno, Lentz, Hayes, Drury, and Jimmy Moore and a stingy defense deserve the credit for this victory. The scoring started with a Gaw to Morrissey bomb of forty yards. After a Glenclyff score, a stalemate ensued for two quarters. Late in the fourth quarter, the line took over. In a drive where Rollins and Nowell pounded out four yards every try, MBA grabbed the lead on a 1-yard Gaw plunge. Robert Black had thirteen tackles while Paul Soper and Robin Henderson each had one interception. Henderson also had a good night returning kicks.

MBA ..... 0; RYAN .....17

Ryan used their superior line strength to pound out a victory at Dudley Field. Despite John Moore's excellent play and Robert Black's seventeen tackles, Ryan's ground game wore down the Big Red with 200 yards rushing. The offense sputtered all night. A Gaw to Morrissey pass put the ball in scoring position, but the team failed to score any points. The Red Red anxiously looked forward to their trip to the Butter Bowl.

Butter Bowl

MBA ..... 0; TULLAHOMA ..... 7

The team travelled to Pulaski to play in the season finale, the prestigious Butter Bowl. On the cold afternoon, MBA committed a disappointing five turnovers which kept them from scoring and resulted in a 7-0 loss to a talented Tullahoma squad. The offense was led by the running of Buddy Knight and Will Nowell. John Moore led a tenacious defensive performance which was highlighted by a remarkable goal-line stand. As a result of his efforts, Moore received the Most Valuable Defensive Player Award. Despite the loss, the team must be commended for their successful season and post-season bowl appearance.

"Three games, three losses, but valuable experience for the future." These words from Coach Elliott describe a disappointing but advantageous season for a young, enthusiastic Junior Varsity football squad.

The year began with a 21-6 loss to Overton. Despite strong play from the defense, led by Rob Harwell and Talbot "Stop" Masten, numerous mistakes plagued the team. In the second game of the year against arch rival Father Ryan, the J.V. offense got on track. The offense scored three touchdowns but was out-gunned 27-21. For the season finale, the J.V. hit the road to meet a tough Brentwood squad. The J.V. was again defeated 14-0, despite aggressive defensive play and the strong running of Paul Soper. Others playing well for the J.V. throughout the season were Chuck Brandon, Brad Mangrum, Ken Russell, Brad Fuson, and Big John "the Growler" Pamplin.

This proved to be a successful year; for, as Coach Regen says "a good varsity season reflects good work from the J.V." The future of MBA football certainly looks bright if this year's J.V. continue to improve.

Freshman Football

Row 1: C. Gayden, T. Frist, P. Lilly, S. Hooper, H. Brown, R. Chilton, A. Brown, G. Bumstead, M. Kneeland (Manager); Row 2: C. Fly (Manager), J. Pickel, S. Boone, B. Brothers, R. Pelaez, L. Graber, B. Martin, B. Whitson, S. Burke, K. Rhodes, T. Albright, F. Downey; Row 3: C. Trabue, T. Spence, W. Meyer, P. Paris, J. Stroman, J. Thompson, D. Farrar, T. Humphreys, B. Fitzpatrick, T. Sullivan, T. Carney, C. Blaufuss

The Freshman football team, coached by Mr. Williams, Mr. Saclarides, and Mr. Gaither, ended its season with a disappointing 2-5 record. Led by Trey Spence, Temp Sullivan, and Will Meyer, the defense proved to be the team's strong point. Quarterback Jay Stroman and wide receiver Peter Paris were the heart of the offense.

The Freshmen opened the season with a 20-6 loss to Hillsboro. Running back Meyer scored the lone MBA touchdown. Three weeks later, MBA soundly defeated Hillwood 20-0. Fullback Clay Trabue scored twice and Paris had a great touchdown reception. The following week, the Freshmen continued to play well with a victory against Maplewood 12-0. In the final game of the year, the Freshmen suffered a heart-breaking loss to rival Father Ryan, 3-0. The score was tied 0-0 at the end of regulation, but in overtime, Ryan kicked a field goal to win.

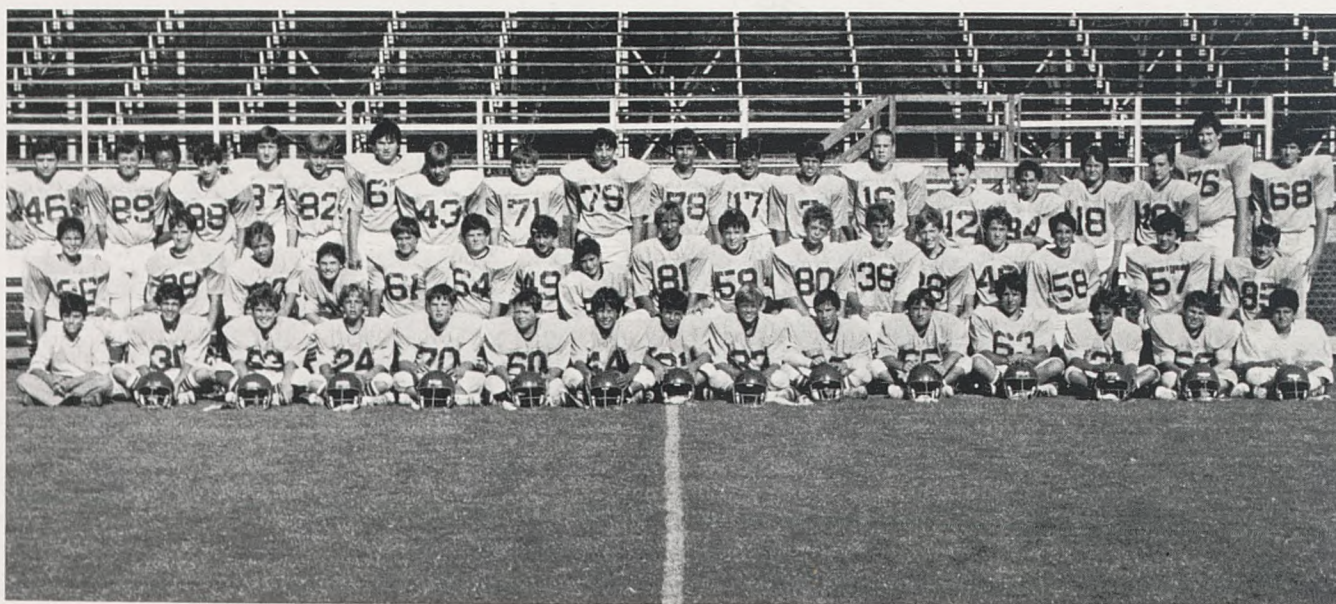

The team finished the season with a 2-5 record, but the record does not indicate the quality of talent this year. The 1983 Freshman team will be back in 1984 to contribute to the Junior Varsity and Varsity programs.

Microbe Football

The energetic but unfortunate microbe football team ended their year with a 2-5 record. Captains Marc Smith, David Spickard, and Emmett Russell led the Little Red well. Coaches Compton, Caldwell, Herring, Zenanko, and Downey also played a major role in the microbe season.

The season for the microbe team started off slowly. Franklin Road Academy barely edged the Little Red in the first game of the year. MBA awakened quickly from that first loss and beat Ezell Harding 21-0. Marc Smith ran for one touchdown and Mike Morrissey threw for two. The next week, MBA defeated their rivals, the Ensworth Tigers, 21-8. Richard Speight ran for the first touchdown, and Emmett Russell ran the ball to score the next two. Against Brentwood, Marc Smith made a long run to score MBA's only TD. In the final game, Marc Smith, again ran the ball to make the microbe's only score as they lost to BGA. Although the season ended on a bad note, the team hopes to improve in the future and to contribute to the freshman team of 1984.

Seventh Grade Football

Coached by Mr. Zenanko and Ken Downey, the seventh grade football team suffered a disappointing season, ending the year with an 0-4 record. Led by captains Drew Robison and Jonathan Manley, the team played tough all year but could never seem to come up with a big play or a lucky bounce. With a little luck, the team will be back next year and succeed in the H.V.A.C.

Cross Country 1983

On an August day of over 95 degree heat, Montgomery Bell Academy's 1983 Cross Country team met again to begin the punishing discipline of a long distance workout. This year's team's destiny after losing four of the top seven was unknown. Under the skillful coaching of Mr. Pruitt and Mr. Drake, however, the team pulled itself together and made its way through another undefeated season.

Van Riper charges ahead.

MBA ran into the season with a full head of steam and defeated a strong Father Ryan team in the first dual meet of the season. Led by seniors David Wood, Elliott Sloan, Ran Van Riper, Russell Coleman, and Bill Treanor, the team went on to defeat consecutively all the remaining NIL teams. On the road, MBA defeated Clarksville Northwest and the hills of Dickson County, both for the second year in a row. The team surged forward into the middle of the season by competing in the Antioch Invitational, the A.F. Bridges Invitational, and the Lipscomb Invitational. The team was once again the first place finisher in the NIL Western Division and won the NIL Championship and Region 5 championship. As in the past, MBA met with stiff competition in the state meet and finished a disappointing 12th.

Under the direction and inspiration of Mr. Novak and Dr. Ward, the 1983 Microbe Cross Country team had a fine season with the exception of one meet. With wins over Ensworth, BGA, FRA, and arch-rival Northside, the team upped its dual meet record to 5-0. Leading the way throughout the season was Steve Zibas, who placed first for MBA in every meet. David Hollyday, Lanson Hyde, Stephen Smith, Jay Binkley, and Jim Weiss rounded out the top six runners throughout the season. With their 5-0 record, the team advanced to the championship meet with high hopes. However, the Microbes had a bad day and placed a very disappointing third place behind Northside and Ensworth. The team will have much talent returning and should do well next season.

Varsity Basketball

The 1983-84 Varsity Basketball team enjoyed a very successful season despite a 13-13 record. Under the leadership of the team's four seniors: Matt Drury, Davidson French, John Morrissey, and Kevin Wolfe, this team reached many of its goals and improved greatly over last year's team as evidenced by its birth to the Regionals, an accomplishment not achieved for several years.

In pre-district action, the Big Red began the year with a hard-fought 46-43 loss to Sullivan North, then trounced out-manned FRA 56-41. In the first district outing, MBA, led by sophomore sensation center Jay Schmidt's 16 points, outlasted archnemesis Father Ryan 57-54 in overtime. After this big victory, the team had a bit of a let-down and lost three straight games.

Row 1: J. Brown, D. French, K. Wolfe, J. Morrissey, R. Henderson, M. Blade, D. Malone; Row 2: S. Stroman, M. Drury, J. Schmitt, P. Richards, H. Trost.

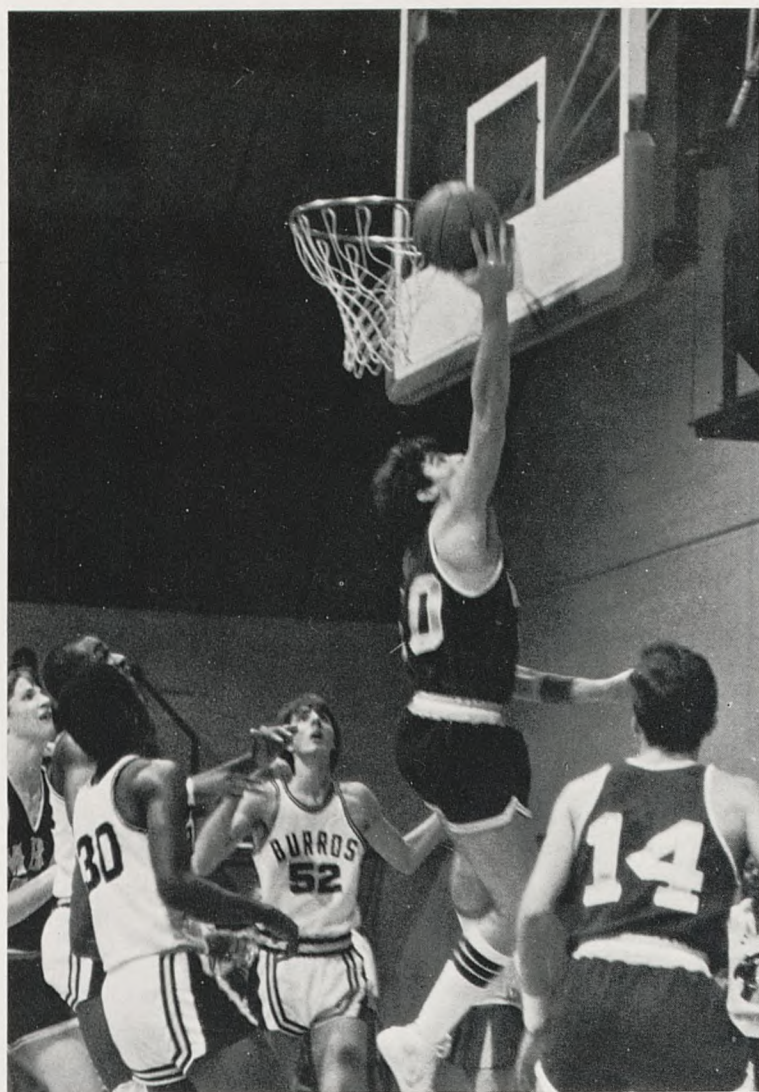

Then came the Ryan Invitational Christmas Tournament, an important stepping stone for the second half of the season. The team achieved an early goal by winning this tournament and defeating host Ryan 55-48 in the finals. Matt Drury, displaying his basketball prowess, scored 33 points in the two games and was named the tournament MVP. Joining him on the all-tournament team was Jay Schmidt, who scored 35 points in the two games.

After Christmas, the Varsity continued its winning way by defeating Brentwood Academy 55-43 and district foe Antioch 55-45. The team was led in scoring by seniors Drury and Morrissey. Then came a heart breaking loss to District leader Pearl-Cohn 44-43. After this loss came some hard times with the loss of three key players, Michael Pirrie to academic difficulties, Morrissey to illness, and Wolfe to injury. In the midst of adversity, the team regrouped and won three straight by beating Antioch, Pearl-Cohn, and Glencliff. The last two games were very big wins. By defeating the District leader Pearl-Cohn, the team gained much respect as well as a lot of self-confidence. The team proved that the win was no fluke as it defeated a very tough Glencliff team in a 59-58 thriller.

The Big Red then entered the District tournament with the goal of advancing to the Regional. The team achieved this goal by upsetting Hillsboro, a team that had defeated MBA both times in the regular season. The victory was an exciting 59-57 decision in overtime, with Matt Drury scoring a career high 26 points. Already assured a trip to the Regional, the team lost to Pearl-Cohn and then claimed 3rd place in the district by once again beating the Irish of Father Ryan 55-47.

In the Regionals, the Big Red lost a long, hard struggle to eventual Regional tournament runner-up Maplewood 49-42. Jay Schmitt, who made the all-tournament team, led the scoring with 17 points. After the game, the realization of what kind of season the team had struck the members of this year's varsity. The team had fought long and hard and were worthy of their fruitful season. Matt Drury, all year the team leader, was named to All-Nashville team, a fitting end to his great year and the team's great year.

J.V. Basketball

Row 1: M. Blade, T. Pardue, R. McNair, T. Kelley; Row 2: S. Stroman, J. Owen, T. Masten, C. Fridrich, B. Fuson, N. Sieveking.

Despite the loss of former Freshman All-World Jay Schmitt to the varsity, this year's J.V. Basketball team was able to scrounge out an improved 9-9 record. The even record in Jim Bostick's first full coaching campaign was the best for an M.B.A. J.V. team in the past five years. The offense was led by a balanced attack of Talbot Masten, Dave Malone, Jay Owen, and Brad Fuson with much needed help from juniors Henry Trost and Steve Stroman. Despite the sometimes poor shooting, strong rebounding by Owen, Masten, Nick Sieveking, and Todd Pardue and aggressive defense by Malone and Pardue were the high points of this year's team. Big wins for the year included impressive come-from-behind wins over Overton and Pearl-Cohn and a brutal 64-57 whipping of Glencliff in which Sieveking had 20 points. The highlight of the year for the Big Red was a 47-41 triumph over B.G.A. in which Owen sank two pressure free throws with one second left to send the game into overtime. Other contributors were Chip "Bombs Away" Fridrich, Rob McNair, Trey Kelley, and Mike Blade.

The freshman basketball squad made it through the regular season with a 6-6 record and a 7-7 overall record with an outstanding performance in the district tournament. The roundballers were paced by the shooting of Peter Paris (20 ppg) and Charles Mayes (17 ppg), along with starters Jay Stroman, Paul Lentz, and Johnny Thompson. The team opened its season against archrival Father Ryan, whom they defeated soundly with a 30 point effort from Paris. After disappointing road losses to Franklin Jr. High and McGavock, the freshmen came back with a victory over Hillsboro. After Christmas break, the team came up with a stunning upset victory over district powerhouse Whites Creek by 1 point on a last second shot by Mayes, but then lost to Glencliff, East, and Overton. When tournament time arose, the team beat Hillwood in the first round but then lost a close game to the eventual champion Overton. Other contributors to the team during the year were: Michael Inman, Gantt "Hackmaster" Bumstead, Tom Harwell, Rashed "Skeeter" Fakhruddin, Bobby Whitson, Dan Farrar, Chris Burch, Brad Reed, and managers Sandy McLeod and Chip Blaufuss. Members of this team will definitely aid the future junior varsity and varsity teams next year.

Microbe Basketball

In the 1983-84 season, the microbe basketball team coached by Mr. Saclarides had a very successful year. Most of the season, the five starters were: Marc Smith, center; John Teas, forward; Mike Morrissey, wing; Jay McKnight, wing; and Emmitt Russell, point guard. At the end of the season, the Big Red ran into a little difficulty with numerous injuries. Coach Sac called on Ben Tate, David Spickard, and Chris Hall to fill the missing spots. The team ended a great year with a 7-5 record and an HVAC title trophy. Throughout the season the team played great offense and tough defense. In the tough HVAC tournament, the microbes opened up with an easy victory over the Rebels of FRA. After an upset of heavily favored Northside, the Little Red defeated BGA to capture the coveted HVAC championship trophy with Chris Hall, Mike Morrissey, and Marc Smith elected to the all tournament team.

Varsity Wrestling

The 1983-84 MBA Wrestling team, with all its youth and misfortune, stumbled through a disappointing season. After capturing 3rd place in the state just one year ago, the team had hopes of bettering that accomplishment. The team consisted of only one senior: Brad Blevins, 126; five juniors: Walter Smithwick at 112, Scott Garfinkel at 119, Chris Smith at 138, Steve Rollins at 165, and Steve Saperstein at 185; and five sophomores: Jim and Will Campbell at 98 and 105 respectively, Paul Soper at 132, Sam Marney at 145, and John Jenkins at 155.

Heading to Memphis with high hopes, the team opened the season at the Bishop Byrne Invitational Tournament where only two wrestlers, Smithwick and Garfinkel, placed. They both received third place. Next, the team competed in the Overton Invitational, where Walter Smithwick and Scott Garfinkel both gained first place honors, while their teammates Steve Rollins and Brad Blevins captured third place awards. Then bad weather struck as well as the "Christmas Lazies." This supposed time for reconditioning was marred by too many absences. Three weeks later, the team entered the first post Christmas tournament, the Father Ryan Invitational. In this very tough tournament, the only wrestler to place was Scott Garfinkel, who took home the 2nd place award. Then came the Hillwood Invitational where four wrestlers placed. Smithwick was first, Garfinkel was second, Rollins was third, and Blevins was fourth.

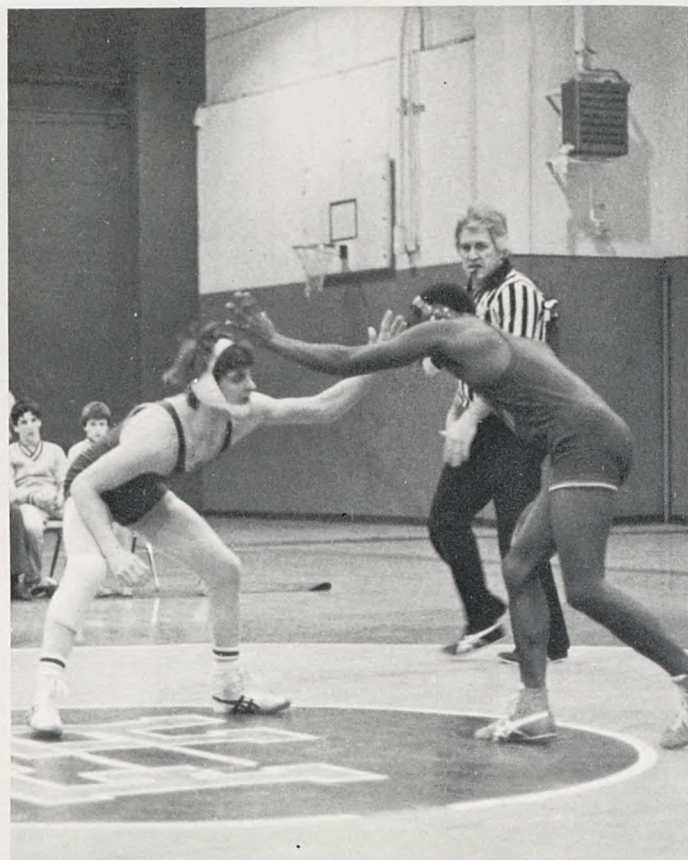

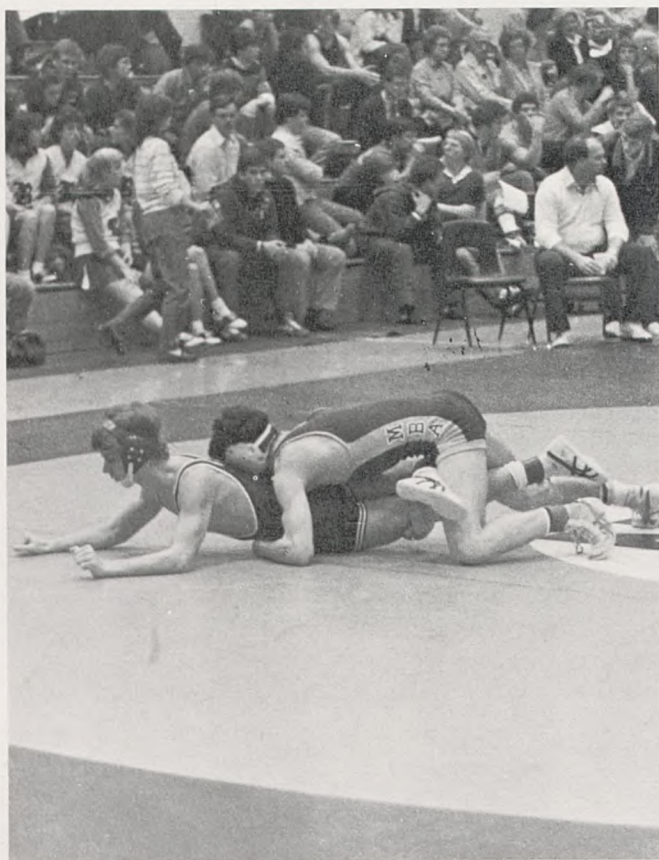

In the District Tournament, the team failed to win the championship, but eight wrestlers did advance to the Regional Tournament. They were Jim and Will Campbell, Chris Smith, Paul Soper, Steve Rollins, Steve Saperstein, Walter Smithwick, and Scott Garfinkel. At the Regional Tournament, youth along with some unfortunate defeats caused the number of MBA wrestlers to drop from eight to two. The lone MBA survivors were the two tough juniors, Smithwick and Garfinkel. The state tournament meant a lot to both of these young men, who both drew the number one seeds. Smithwick, a bit hampered by injury, lost a tough match, but Garfinkel pulled off a huge upset over Russell George of CBHS. Garfinkel went on to win the quarterfinals with relative ease, and then he probably won his biggest match of the year by beating Walter Batey of McGavock. Garfinkel then went on to capture his second straight state championship. The outlook for the future looks fantastic with the loss of only Brad Blevins. The potential is there for great success next year.

Freshman Wrestling

Row 1: T. Humphreys, T. Carney, F. Downey, R. Rollins, L. Graber, T. Frist; Row 2: R. Nimmo, H. Carney, A. Rosen, W. Ward, C. Enders.

The freshman wrestling team, composed of several seventh and eighth graders along with the freshmen, had a very successful 1983-1984 season. Led by captains Tommy Frist and Trajan Carney, the team had a very respectable dual match record and finished second in both the Western Division Tournament and the Mid-State Tournament. People placing in both tournaments were: Frist, whose match in the Mid-State was voted best match of the tournament, Trajan Carney, Hampton Carney, Frank Downey, Robert Rollins, Louis Graber, Andy Rosen, and Chad Enders. This freshman team will certainly help the varsity next year and could eventually be one of the best varsity teams in later years.

Microbe Wrestling

Row 1: C. McPherson, J. Szydlo, W. Ward, B. Bradshaw, C. Enders; Row 2: R. Nimmo, K. Fitzpatrick, C. Gaston, H. Carney, B. Healy.

What do you get when you put eight seventh graders and three eighth graders, only one having experience, together on a red and gray wrestling mat? The answer is the 1983 microbe wrestling team led by Coach Anderson Gaither. Former champion John Szydlo, Charles Gaston, and Chad Enders made up the participants from the eighth grade while Charles McPherson, Will Ward, Jim Wiess, Rabin Nimmo, Hampton Carney, A.J. Archibald, and Kelsy Fitzpatrick came from the seventh grade. Having a majority of inexperienced wrestlers, the Little Red suffered through a 2-5 record, winning only against BGA. Fortunately, the HVAC tournament was more successful for our team. John Szydlo placed second, Charles McPherson placed third, and the team placed fourth overall.

Microbe Baseball

Row 1: H. Bodine, M. Williams, C. Calton, B. Hitt, D. Robison, K. Fitzpatrick; Row 2: F. Conner, T. Rogers, D. Patikas, D. Hobbs, A. Rice, M. Smith, M. Morrissey, D. Spickard, J. Norris.

This year's Microbe Baseball team, under coach Mike Caldwell, had a disappointing 2-5 year. The team was plagued by bad weather and canceled games, and their poor record was a result of an inability to develop continuity in their play. Despite these difficulties, there was a fine line between the disappointing year and a successful one. In 3 of their 5 losses, the winning run was scored by the other team in their last time at bat. The microbe's two big wins came over arch-rival Ensworth, 16-5, and lethargic Harding Academy, 26-4. The Little Red was led in hitting by Mark Smith, .455 average with 5 home runs, David Spickard, .522 average, Demetri Patikas, .500 average, and David Hobbs, Caldwell said that his 10 eighth graders should add support to the J.V. and Varsity teams next year, while his 5 seventh graders should provide a strong nucleus for next year's microbes.

Varsity Baseball

After returning from an incredible week in Florida, the baseball team had high hopes for the season. However, the week of practice and games in the sunshine had a reverse effect on the opening week. The team lost the opening game to Antioch 14-0 and followed with losses to Brentwood Academy 8-3 and Manchester 11-2. They were certainly missing the talents of all-NIL standout Will Nowell, but they were able to regroup under the superb coaching efforts of John Bennett in his comeback campaign. Erasing the memory of the first week, the baseball team recorded 5 straight victories including a 4 hit shut-out by Robbie McNair against Glencliff 9-0 and an 11 hit outing against Pearl-Cohn 11-4. The Big Red then lost to Ryan, the only district loss suffered except for the 3 losses to eventual district champion Antioch. Appearing that Ryan had won the game in the early innings, the opportunity for revenge came when an Alan Jackson walk triggered a Big Red rally. Jeff Gaw and Talbot Masten followed with key hits to set the stage for Chris Smith's game winning RBI.

The Big Red entered the district tournament with 10 wins and 3 losses and faced Hillsboro in the first round. John Morrissey began the excitement with a home run on the first pitch. McNair, not to be outdone, homered twice as he held the Burros to five hits. Next, the team traveled to Seven Oaks and went up against Glencliff in what proved to be another game in which the Big Red had to come back. Going into the 7th inning trailing 2 to 1, Chris Smith sparked a rally with an infield hit, and Morrissey, Jackson, and Gaw all had key hits to keep it going. Chip Fridrich pitched well with a five hitter as a 4-2 victory was claimed. After a loss to Antioch in the championship bracket, the Red was forced to play Overton, with the winner gaining a regional tournament berth. They beat Overton 11-4 behind McNair's 3 hits and Fridrich's pitching. In the first round of the Region, the team lost to eventual state champion McGavock, ending the season with a 13 and 8 record.

Throughout the season, the Big Red was led in pitching by McNair and Fridrich, in hitting by McNair (.372) and Masten (.327), and in defense by Dave Malone, Harry Peffen, and Robert Black. The overall key to the success of this season was supplied by the outstanding senior leadership of right fielder Alan Jackson (.347), center fielder John Morrissey (.359), and all-NIL first baseman Jeff Gaw (.392).

Intramural Softball

The seventh and eighth grade intramural softball league again flourished under the direction of Mr. Frank Novak and Dr. Porter Ward. The league was composed of a group of dedicated young microbes who worked everyday to improve their game. Throughout the season, Mr. Novak and Dr. Ward were seen giving advice and helping these players along the road to stardom. Although the season was hampered by rain, all of the games were eventually completed, with many promising stars appearing by the end of the season, the most hopeful for the big leagues being that budding blue-chipper A.J. Archibald. When the tournament was completed, the eighth graders had thoroughly thrashed the seventh graders, despite A.J.'s incredible play.

Despite the torrential rains this year, the season was a success and it is hoped that in years to come Mr. Novak and Dr. Ward will help to continue the development of these young players both on and off the field.

Varsity Soccer

Row 1: S. Sprague, C. Lilly, B. Enkema, K. Wolfe, S. Jones, J. Zibas, R. Baughman; Row 2: E. Sloan, D. Swartz, R. Ballenger, C. Guzikowski, F. Goldner, S. Young, J. Enkema, D. Thombs, C. Hall, D. French, T. Don

The 1983-1984 MBA Varsity Soccer team was an outstanding success. Finishing third in the state tournament, the team overcame many injuries resulting from game play, practice, and dump trucks. It seemed as if each game was played with fewer and fewer players. The team overcame all of this, however, and successfully won coach Lanier's 100th game.

The regular season began with a rousing victory over FRA with a score of 7-0. This pattern was continued with a 7-0 victory over Clarksville. These two victories were followed by the team's only defeat, coming from Hendersonville on a close 2-3 decision. Facing the Irish after this disappointment, the team produced a 1-1 tie game. At the team's only away game during the regular season, MBA and Overton deadlocked at 0-0. Back home again, in the last tie of the season, the Big Red matched Hillwood 1-1. The season ended on three good notes with victories over Brentwood (4-0), USN (7-0), and Hillsboro (9-1). The team scored a total of 38 goals compared to 7 scored by their opponents.

The tournament started with a game against McCallie at Vanderbilt. The game was 0-0 through regulation and the two overtimes. Finally, in a shoot-out, Tim Don, Davidson French, Ross Ballenger, and Steven Jones put the egg past the goalie resulting in a win recorded as 1-0. In the next game against Ryan, Davidson French scored one goal and it appeared as if MBA would win until Ryan scored and tied the game. The game continued at 1-1 until the whistle. After the first two overtimes, the game was still tied, and in a shoot-out, the Big Red won and put themselves into a semi-final round against Dobyns-Bennett of Kingsport. After a night's sleep, the team returned to face DB in what was destined to be the team's ticket to the consolation game against Brentwood. The game ended after Saturday, a down but not defeated MBA team returned to beat Brentwood 2-0 and to finish third in the state.

The 1984 microbe soccer team's season can be described as one of hope—hope for the future. The season started out in “wham-bam” fashion when the microbes were forced to meet the always strong Northside. Having had very little practice together, the microbe squad lost their first game 7-0. Although their season record ended up 1-7-1, the mighty microbes continued to improve as they developed team cohesion. Willie Johnson showed great improvement in the goal while Chris Baird, a strong defender, did well at keeping the ball away from his goalkeeper. Other players who contributed significantly to the team during the year were Steve Zibas, a midfielder and workhorse of the team, and Chris Hall at forward. Even though their record was not terribly impressive, Coach John Lanier was encouraged by their ability to learn and improve. The team started the season as a young, inexperienced squad, but by the time of the last game (ironically against Northside again), the microbes showed improvement in their ball control and their overall game. Because of their ability to learn and work together, Coach Lanier feels he has a strong base for the varsity teams of the future.

Row 1: M. Shears, J. Teas, H. Andrews; Row 2: F. McKnight, H. Gilbert, P. Parker, M.M. Morris, J. Lobenius, R. Boyers, C. Brothers.

Morris surveys his lie (below).

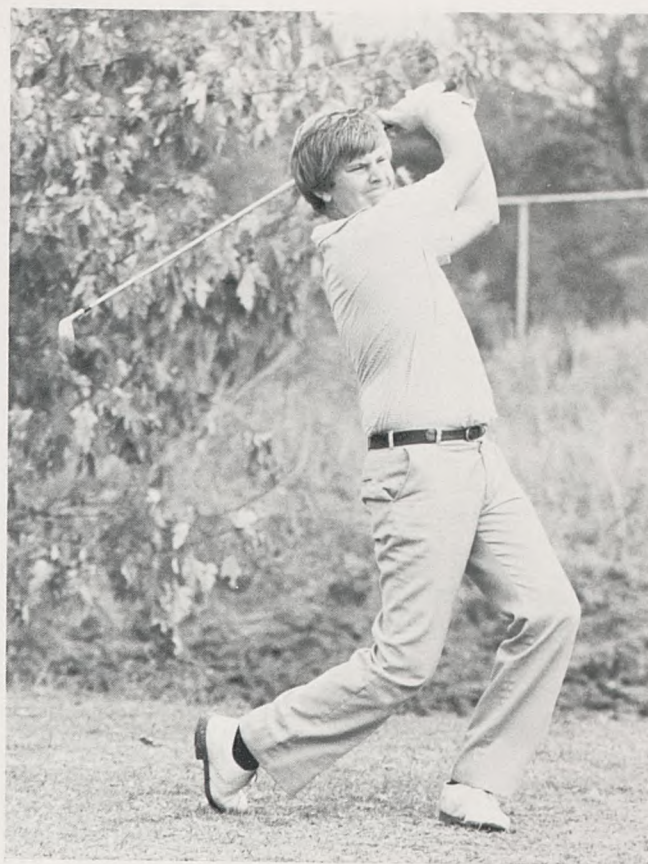

The 1983-1984 MBA golf team had a frustrating fall season. After their usual domination of mid-state golf, compiling a 19-0 dual match record, the Big Red finished a disappointing second in the district. The lowest rounds of the year were recorded by seniors Marvin Morris and French McKnight. Pat Parker provided steady play throughout the fall as did Mike Shears and John Teas, who alternated at the fourth spot. The team finished 1st in the Cougar Classic Invitational in Dickson with French McKnight gaining 3rd place honors individually. Marvin Morris's 2nd place finish in the district was the only other individual performance of any merit.

The Big Red was stunned in the regional tournament, losing to McGavok by ten strokes, for MBA was expected to be one of the favorites to take the state title. Inconsistent play plagued the MBA linksters throughout the regional with McKnight and Morris only mustering second and third place ties individually. The MBA team did manage a second place finish in the region, yet with this team's talent it was certainly a disappointment.

The MBA team played in some tournaments in the spring, but the frustration from the fall season was still evident. However, Pat Parker did qualify for the State Open during a torrential downpour. Marvin Morris tied for first in the Bowling Green Invitational, but lost in a playoff. The final, and very impressive performance, was eighth grader Mike Shear's 77 at the prestigious Chattanooga Coca-Cola Prep Classic in forty degree weather. Season 18 hole averages were: Morris 76.1; McKnight 78.6; Parker 78.9; Teas 80.7; Shears 81.4.

The microbe golf team consisted of Bob Hannon, Rhoads Hall, Braxton Perkins, Rob Hilton, Steve Mathews, and Rick Barksdale. The microbe linksters were led by Coach "Doc" Fairbairn. The team only played in one match, against Dickson County, but won the match and claimed a record of 1-0-0. This young team possesses a lot of talent and will aid the MBA golf program in years to come.

Microbe Tennis

During this 1984 spring season, seven average school-boys blossomed into "real men." These incredible microbes joined forces and made the 1984 Microbe Tennis team led by coach Rick Carter. The team consisted of three eighth graders: Jay Riven, Chris Baird, and Mason Houghland. From the seventh grade sprouted Jody Roberts, John Smithwick, Ken Johnson, and Charles Treadway. These strong players beat Brentwood 3-2 to begin their 5-0 record. They continued to be victorious against their rivals, the Ensworth School, by a close score of, again, 3-2. Next on the agenda was Harding Academy, whom MBA beat in all six matches. The microbes again snubbed Brentwood by the wide margin of 4-1. BGA was their last match and MBA won with a convincing score of 4-1. Kurt Gilliland, Charlie Hailey, Robbie Westermann, Billy Bradshaw, James Cheek, and Thomas Williams added strong support to the team and were fortunate enough to say that they were members of this group. In closing, these men have made one of the finest microbe tennis teams in MBA history.

Varsity Tennis

Row 1: J. Davis, S. Mcleod, B. Wilson, V. Sahota; Row 2: T. Frist, G. Fails, J. Gallaher, H. Warner, F. Lance.

The 1984 Varsity Tennis team consisted of seniors John Gallaher, Fletcher Lance, Garth Fails, and Kip Smith; juniors Hunt Warner and Mike Wood; and sophomores Vivek Sahota, Beau Wilson, and Bud Henderson; and freshmen Tommy Frist, Sandy McLeod, Jody Davis, Chip Blaufuss, and Paul Lentz. This mainly senior team of netmen began a very promising season by crushing Riverdale 15-0. This match was followed by sound victories over Dickson County and the Pearl-Cohn Firebirds. The travelling team then went to Memphis to test their skills against tennis powers Germantown and Memphis University School. The team fell to Germantown by a narrow margin of 4-5. The home-court advantage seemed to be too great for MBA to overcome as they were tripped 6-3 by MUS. The team proceeded to beat Brentwood High 10-2, but then lost again to MUS by a score of 7-2. Behind faultless doubles and victories by Fletcher Lance and Vivek Sahota in singles, MBA defeated McCallie by a score of 5-4.

This match seemed to be a warm-up for the Rotary. In #1 singles, John Gallaher upset Eddie Gonzalez of Baylor in the semifinals and then lost to Jeff Barry in the finals. At #3 singles Fletcher Lance kept his undefeated singles record by defeating the 1st and 2nd seeds to take home first place. Vivek Sahota was runner-up in #4 singles and the doubles team of Gallaher-Lance beat the MUS team in the finals to aid MBA to their best-ever finish in the premier high school tournament in Tennessee. MBA returned home to finish the regular season with four victories, followed by a 4-5 loss to Knoxville Webb. In the Carter Invitational, Fletcher Lance and Hunt Warner captured first places, and Vivek Sahota, Garth Fails, and Tommy Frist won second places. Doubles success secured second place for MBA. MBA then swept the district tournament, and went on to win the Region 6 title. Gallaher and Lance met in the finals of both tournaments, Lance winning the first set but suffering his first loss in the second meeting. Gallaher and Lance won the doubles title. Both Gallaher and Lance made it to the state tournament in singles and as a doubles team. Fletcher was a victim of eventual state champion Jeff Barry in the quarterfinals. John lost to nationally-ranked Tim Wallace in the quarterfinals. The doubles team of Gallaher/Lance lost to the eventual state champions, securing 3rd place in the state for MBA, an admirable finish to an excellent year.

Varsity Track

This spring a small group of dedicated athletes bonded together to form the 1984 MBA Varsity Track team. Despite being plagued by many crucial injuries, this year's team proved to be one of the most successful ever, accomplishing feats never before achieved in the history of MBA track. The Big Red tracksters began the season with a disappointing 68-69 loss to Hillsboro. The team quickly rebounded to destroy Franklin 101-34. After losing to powerful Overton 86-51 the Big Red came back to defeat Hillwood 75-62. Next the team travelled to McCallie to compete in the Tornado Track Classic. Despite stiff competition, injuries, and SATs the squad managed to place fourth behind Brentwood, McCallie, and Baylor. After the Tornado Track Classic the Big Red faced McCallie and Glencliff at home. Although losing again to a tough McCallie team, they managed to defeat a competitive Glencliff team.

The highlight of MBA's season came at the Rotary Relays in Clarksville, a new relay for the team, replacing the Western Kentucky Relays. Undaunted by the thought that in the past 10 years no MBA track team has ever won a major invitational meet, the Big Red tracksters entered the meet with optimism. MBA emerged from the field events with a commanding lead over the 20 other select teams including Whites Creek, McGavock, and Stratford, due to excellent performances in the pole vault, high jump, and shot put, but the victory was by no means secure. Going into the mile relay, the final event of the entire meet, MBA was tied for the lead with Fort Campbell 52-52. After 3 legs of the final relay, Fort Campbell was 15 feet ahead as David Chickey received the baton for the last lap of the decisive race. Around the final curve, it was neck and neck as David (I think I can!!) Chickey outleaned his opponent at the finish line to assure MBA of its first major meet championship in ten years. The fact that the Clarksville Meet was composed entirely of relays instead of individual events emphasizes the total team effort behind the track squad. Despite a constant downpour, the team went on to place a respectable fifth in the Optimist Relays. At the Banner Relays the team also did fairly well, placing fifth. The regions brought more rain but unfortunately no luck nor success to the Big Red.

Even more impressive than the team victories were the individual performances of the team members. Performing well was the contemporary Eric McConnell, along with Paul Soper, Buddy Knight, Steve Rollins, Gavin Moon, Alley, Chickey, Wood, Tirrill, and Edwards. Congratulations should be extended to all those who participated on this year's fine team.

Freshman Track

The 1984 freshman track team, under the guidance of Mr. Compton, had a very successful season by finishing undefeated in dual and triangular meets. The frosh recorded victories over Hillwood, Ryan, Franklin, Apollo, McCallie, and Overton. The team was led throughout the year by Johnny Thompson, Peter Paris, and Will Meyer. Impressive performances by the team included Peter Paris in the high jump (6'), Trajan Carney in the discus (140' 11"), Will Meyer in the pole vault (10'3"), and Johnny Thompson in the 100 (11.9) and 200 (25.1). Also making significant contributions were Andy Davis and John Cole in the 800 and 1600.

After their successful dual and triangular meet season, the MBA freshman participated in the Hendersonville Invitational and the Olympic Trophy Invitational, finishing second in both of these competitive events. Thus the MBA freshman track concluded a very successful season. This year's team is very talented and is expected to contribute significantly to next year's varsity track team.

Carney, J. Walton, S. Smith, S. Lewis.

This year the microbe track team finished fourth in the HVAC. This finish is not as good as the microbes have done in the past years, but there were some good points. Steve Zibas got 2nd in the mile and a 3rd place in the 800 meters, and John Teas ran a 59 second 400 meter dash. The 400 meter relay team consisting of Mike Morrissey, Marc Smith, Richard Speight, and Emmett Russell got 3rd in the final meet, and the 800 meter relay team consisting of the same people came away with second place in the finals. Another strong finisher was Rob Archer who ran the 2nd best time in the league in the 110 meter hurdles. A potential star for the microbes of next year was born. The upcoming great is Lanson Hyde, who finished well in the mile every meet and also finished well in the 800 meter run. Marc Smith's shot putting and discus throwing were other highlights of the season.

Overall, the future of the microbe track team, as well as the freshman track team, look bright for next year.

Homecoming

On Friday, October 14, MBA's annual Homecoming was kicked-off by the Spaghetti Supper. The festive Homecoming events were the culmination of a month-long joint effort by the student body and the Mothers' Auxiliary to sell raffle and Spaghetti Supper tickets. The usual contest and special guest appearances by Richard Simmons and little Mr. T. encouraged the ticket-sellers to persevere. Jay Brothers (surprise!) proved to be the top seller. Even the lax seniors came through with the now expected last day surge to capture the coveted Monday holiday.

When Friday night five o'clock rolled around, the Mother's Auxiliary began to serve dinner to well over 2,500 people. The meal consisted of that famous combination of spaghetti, salad, and bread. Thanks to the many mothers who generously donated their time and energy to the project, the evening proceeded smoothly. When the tables had been put away and the money had been counted, over twenty-eight thousand dollars had been raised by the combined efforts.

After the supper, a large crowd turned out to watch the Big Red take on Antioch. During halftime, there were numerous festivities including, the presentation of Homecoming queen Bunny Stein, and her court of Amanda Oldham, Diane Corwin, Sheila Morris, Kelley Sanders, Joan Fox, and Wendy Bryan. Afterwards, the raffle was held to determine the winner of the car and many other prizes. Then the game continued and MBA lost a hard fought battle, 21-15.

The next night at the dance, everyone danced to the music of Crime, a Memphis rock n' roll group. The dance, sponsored by the Big Red Club, was the perfect end to a great weekend.

Dances

In an attempt to nurture the true renaissance character of an MBA student, several student groups held dances in '83-'84. The first dance was proffered to the student body by the creative, imaginative Student Council. Never before had a dance like the one following the Hillwood football game graced Brownlee O. Currey Gymnasium in MBA history. The idea was simple yet revolutionary: AIRBAND!! Students would perform for the audience musical adventures which in reality were pre-recorded on albums, cassettes, and other recording media, by famous musical personalities.

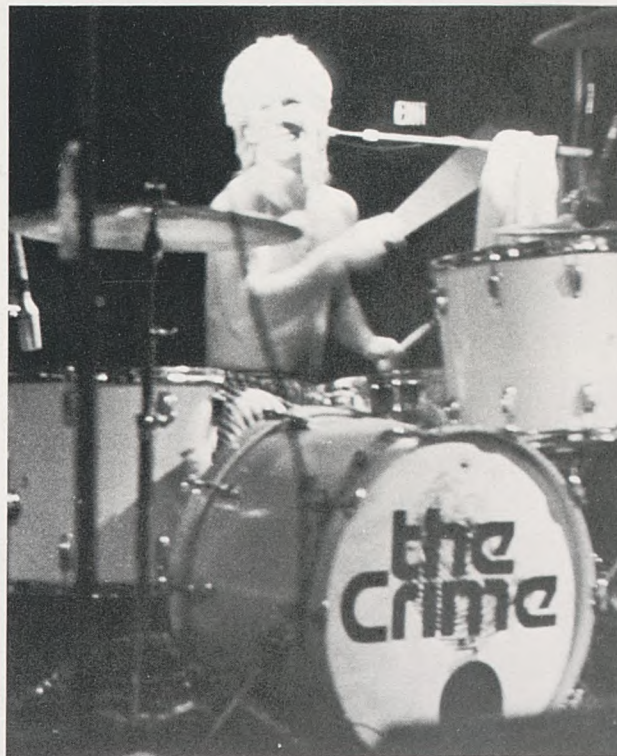

The dance opened with a wave of people swept to the gym by the energy generated by the Big Red's trouncing of its Hillwood opponents, but it wasn't enough; these people wanted more; they wanted ... AIR-BAND. From the midst of this pandemonium emerged the sound of the Village People's YMCA. From the midst of the music emerged the members of the Student Council who had no shame. Thence followed a performance which still lingers in the dreams of all who were there. The performance also included smashing renditions of Prince's "Little Red Corvette" and the Romantics' "What I Like About You!" The Hill rocked!

There is a balance in the universe: for everything good there is something bad or evil. To prove this point was the Student Council's Winter (not bash, blast, or boogie) Bomb. The novel idea of having music videos on large-screen televisions was fresh and non-entertaining. The performance of Bruce Springsteen's "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" by one airband can only be described as disappointing. A marginally entertaining act by Alvin and the Chipmunks along with the Springsteen act were overpowered by the dazzling performance of Santa Claus by Coach Regen (Best Role as Controversial Fictional Character.)

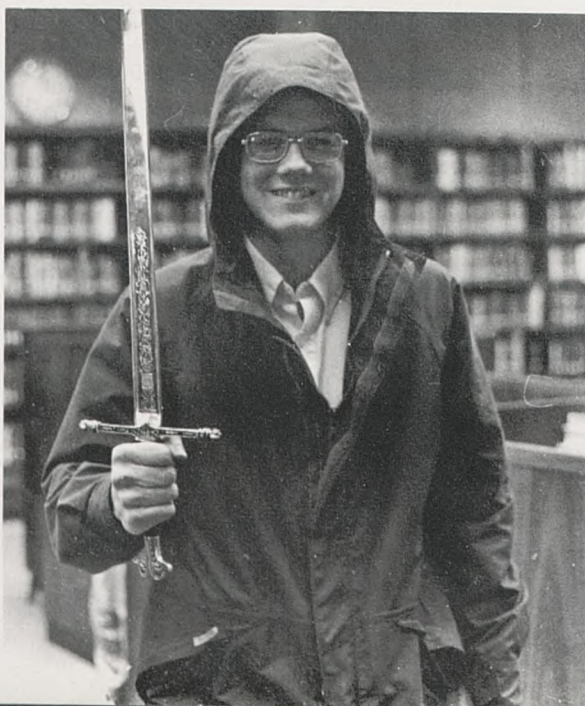

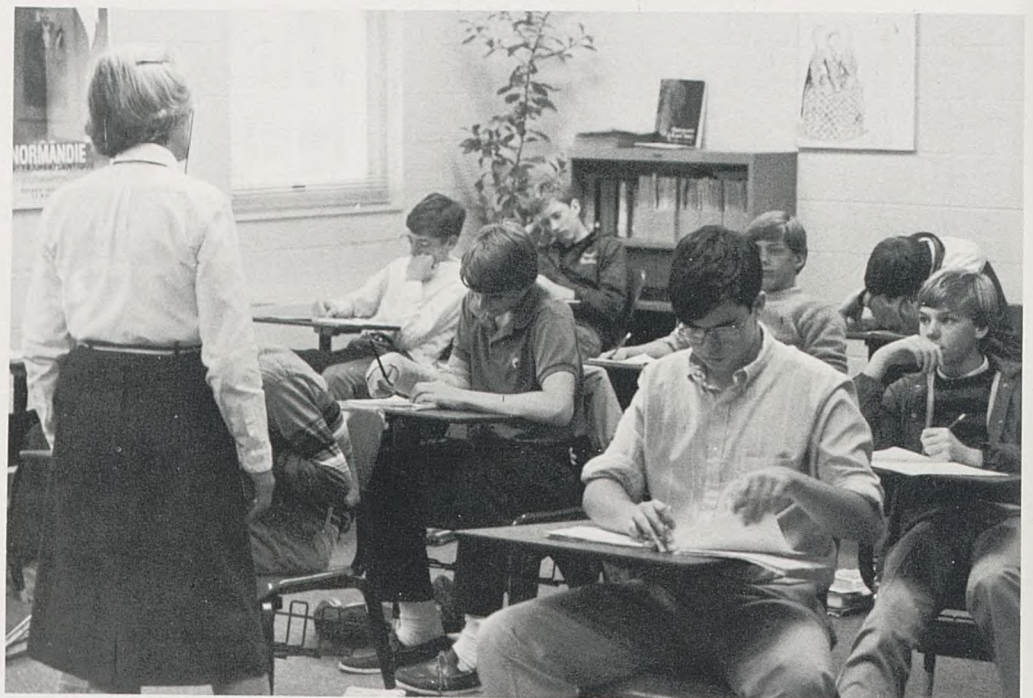

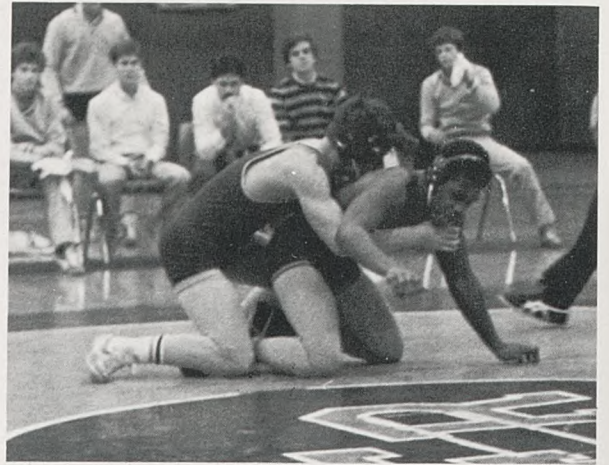

The Service Club, for the first time in over 70 years, presented a gleeful Valentine's Dance. The band was the schizophrenic City Streets, who were torn between Pop-Top 40 singles and four dancin' jivin' brothers pouring out Motown Classics. They were, however, quite entertaining. Mention must be made of "the Cake" which was the product of many hours of hard work by students' mothers and covered several square feet.

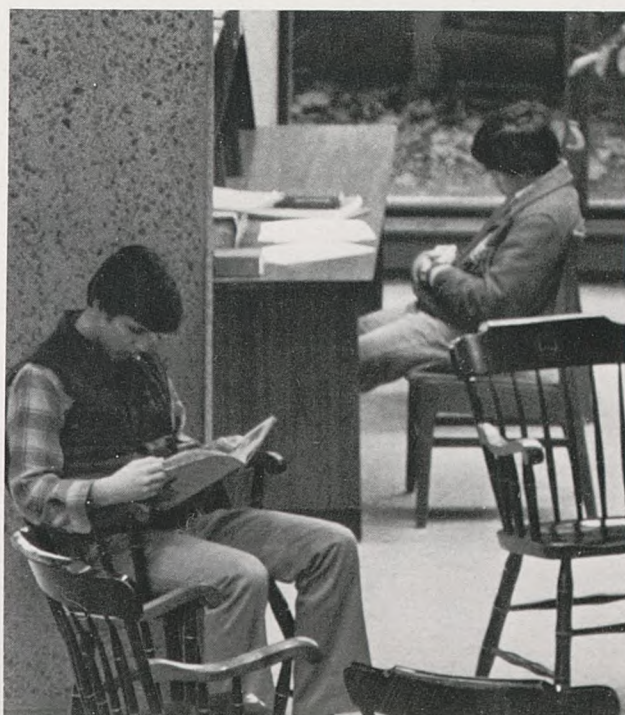

Homecoming brought The Crime and a BELL photographer to Brownlee O. Currey.

Godspell

With the presentation of "Godspell" on February 24-26, students without a doubt saw the most highly acclaimed production that MBA has mounted in recent years. Especially effective with a young cast, "Godspell" is a later 1960's pop-rock musical based on the Gospel according to St. Matthew. The humor in the show reveals Jesus to modern-day lingo, fads, and images without violating the inherent sacredness of the story. Included in Stephen Schwartz's magnificent score are the familiar tunes "Prepare Ye Way of the Lord" and "Day by Day."

Although the cast had a rehearsal period of only four weeks, director Rick Seay and musical director-choreographer Michael Thrasher brilliantly staged the show and guided it in the right direction. The ensemble amused the audience with its take-off on "Mr. Bill" as the beaten man rescued by the good Samaritan. At the same time, the betrayal and crucifixion of Jesus left many a tearful eye in the audience. The play was enthusiastically received by the audiences.

MBA boys in the cast of "Godspell" were Drew Moore as Jesus, Tim Don as Judas, and John Bauman, Michael Starr, and David Wood in the ensemble. Completing the cast of ten were girls representing four schools: They were Lyn Miles and Maria Seigenthaler from St. Cecilia, Vicki McMurray from Harpeth Hall, Melanie Lockett from Whites Creek, and Xan Waddell from McGavock. Jim Poston served as technical director, with Dake Clarke as stage manager and Rob Sommer and David Farrar on the lighting crew.

The New Gym

In May of 1983, the final chapter in MBA's campus extension program began. In May of 1984, the chapter resulted in a new regulation basketball court built for use by the Junior School and Intramural Competition groups. The new structure containing the gym also includes a wrestling room, weight room, laundry room, and extra locker rooms.

In addition to the new gym, the old gym received some fairly extensive renovation. The lobby was completely renovated, and the beautiful Roberts Room was added. New carpet, paint, and fire doors will be added to the present varsity locker room. A new lab for Honors/AP Biology and Chemistry will add significantly to the science facilities. The completion of the new gym serves as a testament to MBA's strong commitment to give its athletes perhaps the finest facilities available in the state.

Spring

Hyperactive!

"Go ahead, make my day."

The Prom

The "Eiffel Tower", part of the Paris theme.

After many late night construction meetings, the 1984 Prom began taking shape, with many juniors giving their time during the week before in order to create a Prom indicative of MBA. The theme of the Prom was Paris, and a replica of the Eiffel Tower was constructed with white lights streaming down from its pinnacle. To further illustrate the theme, a water fountain with colored lights was placed in the back center of the Eiffel Tower, and trees, also festooned with lights, lined the runway of the set. Large floral arrangements lined the stairs which were covered with red carpet, and ivy bordered the low wall in front of the processional.

After long nights and days of preparation, the night of the Prom was at hand. The seniors arrived after attending the Senior Banquet and roast at Belmont College. The band began to play after the seniors and their dates had been presented. As the band, Major Midnite, played, they began to understand the students better, and they played music that everyone liked. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening, and the annual tradition of pictures was carried on, aided this year by one of the more unique backdrops ever.

The Prom ended about midnight with the students and their dates going to their class breakfasts. The senior breakfast was held at Scott O'Neal's, and the juniors' at Bobby Frist's. The sophomores feasted at Rob Ikard's. After the breakfasts, (nearly) everyone took their dates home.

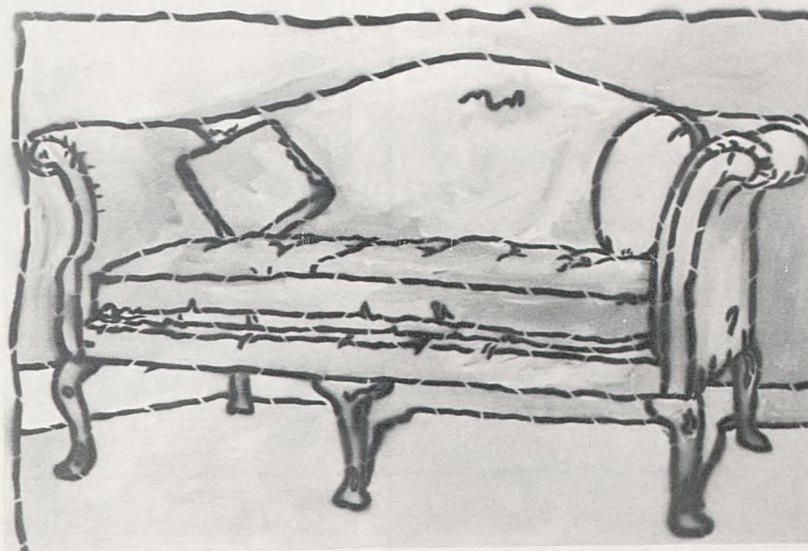

A special thanks should be given to the mothers who provided the refreshments and contributed with the theme and design of the tables. Also a great thanks is owed to all the juniors who worked so hard to provide the seniors with a memorable evening.

Art Shows

Two works by Paul Harmon.

This year proved to be one of the best for MBA's multifaceted art program. Under the leadership of Mr. Jim Womack, the art department has attracted much attention from the community for a year-long series of outstanding shows and displays of work by prominent artists. In the fall, the Patrick Wilson Library provided a setting for the show "Artists Three," which featured portraits by Anne Muller, modernistic quilt patterns and design by Bets Ramsey, and unique wood carvings by Robert Pletcher. January brought an exhibition of recent works by Paul Harmon, an artist of international stature. In his paintings, Harmon makes use of a stencil through which he applies oil, acrylic, and enamel to the canvas; his technique was of special interest to the viewers of the show.

In February, the school paid tribute to Mrs. Phoebe Greene, who retired in 1983 after serving on the MBA faculty for twenty-three years, with a special show of oils and watercolors by Mrs. Louise LeQuire and sculpture, drawings, and prints by her son, Allan LeQuire. A graduate of MBA, Allan is presently at work on a forty-eight foot statue of Athena for Nashville's Parthenon. In April, Myles Maillie, a popular Nashville artist, exhibited his paintings on the Hill. The year ended with a show of works of all types by MBA student artists.

THE BELL

The Hostile Crowd

The rebirth of Big Red Spirit, reminiscent of the resurrection of the Spirit by Jack Combs several years ago, occurred within the walls of Brownlee O. Currey Gymnasium this winter as the Varsity Basketball team fought their way through a tough schedule that included a trip to the Regional Tournament.

Students of all varieties came to the games in droves. This massive support forced the extension of the student section down an entire set of bleachers. At many of the big games, people were forced to stand at the end of the court. Rambunctious supporters fought for the front rows to deride the opposing roundballers and "question" the officials' judgements.

At an early contest, the rowdy bunch abandoned the front rows for a more strategic location on the very edge of the court. As emotion reached a towering crescendo, an untimely call sparked an extraneous participation by non-team members as several of the impassioned boosters spilled onto the court in disbelief. The fans christened themselves the "Hostile Crowd." The uprising was suppressed, but "The Spirit" could not be held back.

As "Kris Kringle Day" approached, one could have expected a lull in support. However, during the Ryan Invitational Tournament, the undaunted crowd proved to be the embodiment of another spirit, the Christmas spirit, as Yuletide carols filled the Ryan Hall.

Student participation was better than ever, and the tremendous help to the team due to the crowd support simply cannot be described.

Career Day Initiated

Choosing a college and making a tentative career decision are two of the more important considerations of MBA Juniors and Seniors. Through the initiation of Career Day, MBA has taken a more active role in the career aspect of these interrelated concerns.

The goal of Career Day was to provide each Junior and Senior with an opportunity to explore four career areas of personal interest. To accomplish this task, the guidance department elicited the aid of Nashvillians with expertise in a variety of fields, including medicine, law, corporate business, politics, advertising, journalism, and several different areas of engineering. These speakers, who generously donated valuable time to MBA, guaranteed the program's success.

Each speaker started the meetings with a presentation covering the nature of his occupation, the methods of entering the profession, and the various advantages and disadvantages of such a career. These presentations were followed by a time allotted for individual questions from the audiences.

Most students applauded this new effort and labeled the program a success. For perhaps the first time at MBA, the Juniors and Seniors received information specific to the careers many will someday embrace. It appears that Career Day will be returning next year with an even more diverse collection of career fields from which to opt.

1984 Bike Race

On February 28, approximately seven teams of four students apiece headed to the MBA track to participate in the fourth annual Bike Race. The race, sponsored by the newspaper and directed by Dr. Niemeyer and Jeff Gaw, consisted of fifty laps around the four hundred meter track, with each member of the four-man team required to cycle at least one lap.

In a shocking upset, the Niemeyer-inspired pre-race favorites, "Passion over Reason", were soundly defeated by the unheralded newcomers, "The Nonames." "The Nonames" consisted of Sam Graber, Elliott Sloan, Steve Altermeier, and Matt Dolloff. They finished in a rain-hampered, but commendable thirty-eight minutes. "The Jock-strappers" edged "Team X" for third place in a mildly controversial finish. Despite the wet weather, this race fielded more teams than any previous running, and hopefully set a precedent for years to follow.

Roberts Room Dedicated

In January, 1984, a ceremony was held in the Brownlee O. Currey Gymnasium to dedicate the new Roberts Room. The room itself is a gift from the Roberts family in memory of their son Stephen Roberts, an alumnus of the class of 1978. The reception was attended by close friends of the family, friends of Stephen, the basketball team, various faculty members, and a representative body of students. Mr. Bondurant and Mr.

Roberts spoke briefly. Mr. Roberts commented upon his son's love for the school and indicated a desire that the room be used by the students. This brief ceremony was followed by refreshments in the gym lobby.

The Roberts Room concept evolved out of Mr. Robert's desire to make a significant contribution to MBA in memory of his son Stephen. It became evident that MBA needed a room designed for meetings as well as another room to display its many trophies.

The close attention paid by the Roberts to this project resulted in a room which admirably fulfills both of these objectives. The room itself is exquisitely decorated with fine furniture, paneled cabinets, and plush carpeting. Separated from the lobby by a glass wall, it is equipped with a television, refrigerator, icemaker, sink, and a screen for any projected presentation. A unique feature of this room is four watercolors depicting various campus scenes.

The Roberts Room has served primarily as a meeting room for school organizations, the Mothers' Auxiliary, and the Board of Trustees. Recently, the room has been opened in the morning for use by academically privileged students. The versatility of the room will enable it to serve MBA in many capacities as new needs arise.

Theme Night

In the week the theme was always there, but we did not work on it. We would sometimes go to the library and stare at the pages of critiques and always the reading would be less than the experience and we would end up talking until a librarian approached. And then it would be Wednesday and night and black and there would only be many sheets of paper with nothing before us, like fields of snow in mountains above where trees can grow.

This we did many times, but it was never any easier. There was always the coffee which makes your hands and eyes twitch in the first hours of day and which makes your mind lose its ideas. There was the initial labor of the first sentence and of the thesis statement and of the rough draft and the fool's relief which came with its completion to those either uninitiated to the theme or to those too blind to recognize their pain.

And then it would be time to write the final copy and it is a hard thing to learn, but those of us who were there and wrote themes know that it took intelligence and honor and dignity and sacrifice and endurance to write seven pages on nothing.

And when a man wrote his theme and signed both pledges and skipped lines correctly and used the proper form on footnotes it was good. And when he actually wrote a coherent paper with organization and verbs and more than two adjectives and avoided a run-on style peculiar to a certain American author it was fine. When a man could do both of these things even as his eyes twitched and as he began to wonder if his ideas made sense it was good and fine.

In the morning, the world and the sun also rose. We saw the rising, but we knew what had come before it and drove it and killed it. We were never the same after having endured the night and in the end it was only the name of the theme that sustained us.

Soccer Team Kisses Dumptruck

Bound for weeks of bacchanalian pleasures (wine, women, and soccer), the 1984 version of the MBA soccer team met at dawn of March 9, 1984 on the MBA campus to prepare for the now defunct trip to Tampa. Having blown off school, the players had vowed to cast off any social and/or moral responsibilities for the duration of the trip.

Little did they know of the tragic consequences of this covenant with the Devil.

Seven seniors (Elliot “Psycho” Sloan, Ross Ballenger, Mark Pollock, Davidson French, Tim Don,

Soccer . . .

Kevin Wolfe, and Currey Hall), piled into Elliot's casket on wheels. Realizing that they had forgotten one of the necessities of decadency, the music, they headed for Kevin's house to get the box.

With Elliot's suburban taking the lead, the soccer team pulled out of MBA looking much like a funeral procession. (Foreshadowing perhaps?) At approximately 6:16 a.m., the early morning haze enveloping the caravan and the landscape, they headed towards Harpeth Hall on Estes Road.

Meanwhile, on the other side of Gotham City, a caravan of two-ton steel gray dumptrucks driven by a cerebral vacuum was moving at cruising speed to intercept them at the Woodmont Blvd.—Estes Rd. intersection. Driven by insane jealousy over the team's going to Florida, attending school, and having a life, these evil-doers had planned to thwart them from their intended "mission."

As they approached the crossing, the trucks reached ramming speed, yet, they were premature (probably characteristically). Their calculations had "accidentally" put them, strangely enough, through a red light in the middle of the intersection. To quote the immortal words of Mr. Kevin Jacob Wolfe: "Not key." These seven semisedate, innocent, and morally chaste missionaries were awed as God's instrument of wrath loomed before them.

At this point, passion obliterated any semblance of reason. Elliot, realizing that the team's combined weight and that the potential of the transference of kinetic energy would easily propel his vehicle through the paper-thin Fischer-Price Lego dump truck, wisely salied farther.

Cadavers littered the boulevard.

The sky broke as the crimson sun shone down upon the macabre scene. Gotham city awoke to the screams of Mr. Lanier searching for his prized pupil, Tim Don. Passing the ambulance on the way to the hospital, the injured, Currey, Ross, Davidson, and Mark, were treated to Mark's repertoire of Islamic vows and oaths.

At the hospital, our new "manifest destiny," Currey was heard to say, "Just leave me in the car; I just want to close my eyes and rest," obviously sacrificing his own well-being for others. Rock of Gibraltar, Salt of the Earth, Man among Men.

Inside the emergency room, everyone was X-rayed as Mark and Ross resigned themselves to spending Spring Break of '84 at St. Thomas Island, off the coast of Nashville, Tennessee.

'84 Science Fair

The MBA Science Fair is many things to many people. To some it is an opportunity to demonstrate scientific ability and creativity. To those less inclined, the fair is an annual source of anguish, an unwanted science course requirement.

The high school science fair is divided into five catagories: Botany, Chemistry, Microbiology, Physics, and Zoology. The Junior School has its own competitions in three divisions: Earth Science, Biology, and Physics. Although the popular exhibits on the backs of the projects were noticeably below par this year, Dr. Thomas declared the 1984 Science Fair to the best since she arrived.

In the Botany division, Paul Kahlon's THE EFFECTS OF GROWTH HORMONES ON PLANTS took the first place ribbon, while in the Zoology division, David Chickey's A STUDY OF THE EFFECTS OF A LIQUID PROTEIN ON MICE received top honors. First place in Microbiology was earned by Jiannbin Shiao's THE EFFICIENCY OF LEUKOCYTES IN CONTROLLING INFECTIONS OF C. ALBICAUS; and Willie Lin's BIOLOGICAL LUMINESCENCE

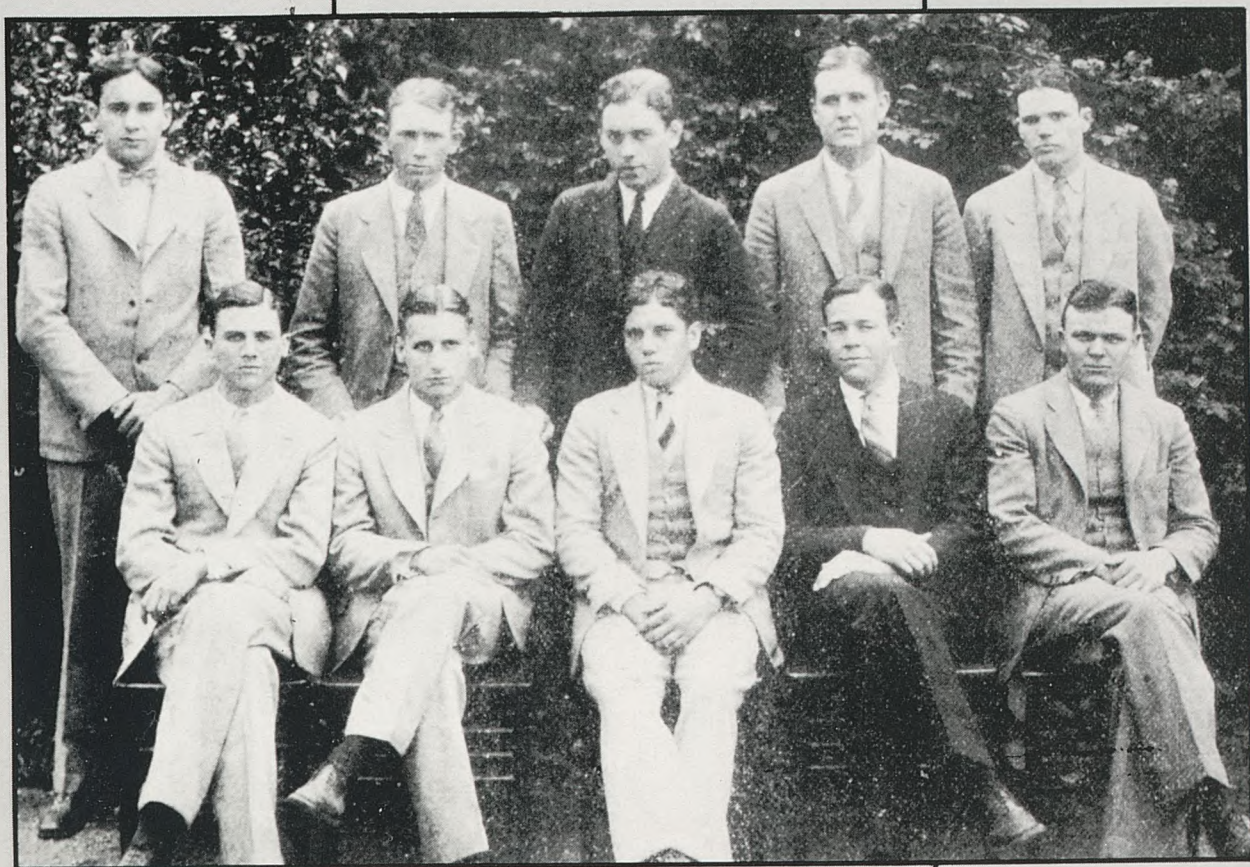

DETERMINATION OF ATP garnered the gold in the competitive Chemistry division. Meanwhile, in Physics, Bobby Frist won first place with the now classic A STUDY OF PENDULUM MOTION, edging out Bill Bainbridge's thought-provoking probe, THE DOPPLER EFFECT ON THE A-TEAM, the most talked-about entry in the fair.

For the third straight year, MBA sent projects to the Mid-State Science and Engineering Fair at Vanderbilt; this time, a record forty three entires. Last year's semifinalist Arshad Khan won awards from the Army and from the Air Force, and Jiannbin Shiao won a Semifinalist Award with one of the more impressive exhibits of the show.

Student Council

In the Summer of '83, when most students were questioning themselves about what sun-rating of Copper-tone to use, the members of the '83-'84 Student Council were wondering, "Why are we going to Davidson College?" "Because you have to!" President Lentz replied philosophically. The Student Council did indeed journey to Davidson to learn about leadership in a MAIS conference. The Council returned highly enthused and eagerly anticipated the beginning of school. Meetings at MBA every Tuesday night produced results even before classes began. The Council discussed aspects of the procedure governing library use, problems emerging from the new schedule, and other issues of school policy.

The council then decided that there would be a dance (thus delivering on many campaign promises). The amazing Airband Dance ensued, and provided maximum enjoyment for the entertainment dollar. In service circles, the Student Council sponsored a clean-up of the Vine Street Christian Church parking lot, and it launched a food drive for the Second Harvest Food Bank. In internal matters, the Council introduced a new facet of communication to class meetings: divided class meetings, in which the classes were separated into smaller groups. This system met with marginal success. Conversely, there was the meeting with Harpeth Hall's Student Council which yielded our joint activities with that school for 1983-'84, none.

In November, the Council sponsored the first Clash Day, which, together with two Duds Days, garnered over three hundred dollars for such causes as the Center for Domestic Violence and the Edgehill Methodist Church's soup kitchen. At the same time, the Student Council continued to fulfill its role as the voice of the student body, developing proposals on such issues as the use of the Roberts Room and the new privilege-demerit relationship. Overall, the Student Council enjoyed a very good year as it assumed a more active and visible role at MBA.

Honor Council

Sitting: Secretary C. Hall, President J. Harrison, Vice-President B. Knight, Treasurer R. Van Riper; Standing: J. Riven, T. Jackson, D. Smith, J. Thompson, R. Alley, D. Chickey, B. Donnell, B. Cochran.

This year's Honor Council, led by president John Harrison, continued its difficult duty in upholding the honor code at MBA. The Honor System was started in 1945 for the purpose of discouraging lying, cheating, and stealing. Today, this idea still stands as the backbone for the Honor Council and its actions. Unfortunately, the document called the "Constitution" of the MBA Honor System that acts as an outline and guide for the Council's actions is very outdated. It is so outdated, in fact, that many of the articles outlined in the document are no longer used.

One of the more obvious conflicts between present actions and the details of the Constitution is the election process for members. The method for elections outlined in the document is disregarded at present for practical purposes. Aside from the election process, many problems arise about the details of procedure and punishment that are either not outlined in the document or are no longer used by the Council. Also of major concern is the controversy surrounding the act of deception. The Constitution, although specifying its jurisdiction over cases of lying, cheating, and stealing, never mentions attempts to deceive. At this time, the Council considers deception an offense; but again, this subtlety needs to be clarified by a change to the Constitution.

Again, like last year, the Honor Council made further plans to ammend this obsolete charter.

Totomoi

This past year six new members were added to Totomoi, MBA's honorary fraternity. Inducted at the Winter Tapping were three seniors: Sam Chang, John Harrison, and Ransom Van Riper. After the Spring ceremony, these three were joined by senior Parish Lentz, junior David Chickey, and Mrs. Hollins. In 1984, Totomoi celebrates its thirtieth anniversary as an institution on the Hill. Dr. Sager founded Totomoi in 1954 to honor individuals who had exhibited extraordinary achievements in several facets of school life. A student's participation is measured according to a graded point system. To qualify for membership, a student must accumulate enough points in three of the following categories: scholarship, athletics, student government, organizations, forensics, and dramatics and publications and citizenship. In addition, the student must have a suitable academic average, and he must be approved by a faculty vote.

FCA

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes had a very successful year in 1983-1984. Meaningful programs were arranged by sponsor Mr. Mark Elliott and president Jeff Gaw. These programs included great speakers such as Pogo Smith and Bill Wade and discussions of scripture. One very encouraging aspect of this year was the attendance, which was constantly in the fifteen to twenty range. Enjoyable new aspects of this year's F.C.A. were date nights and the post F.C.A. Basketball league. The highlight of the year was the Christian Athlete of the Year banquet, in which Jeff Gaw was MBA's nominee. The prospects for the future of F.C.A. at MBA are bright as a result of a strong, underclassman turnout this year.

Service Club

Members: J. Moore, S. O'Neal, B. Lewis, M. Drury, M. Fabian, D. French, J. Gaw, Guzowski, Jimmy Moore, J. Harrison, L. Hayes, P. Lentz, W. Nowell, E. Sloan, M. Finks, R. Alley, B. Baingridge, R. Black, T. Brothers, D. Chickey, B. Frahn, M. Hardcastle, D. Muddiman, M. Pirrie, S. Stroman, F. Wilk, H. Peffen, R. Bueno, C. Fridrich, J. Griffith, D. Malone, T. Patikas, N. Sieveking, L. Vaughn, H. Walker.

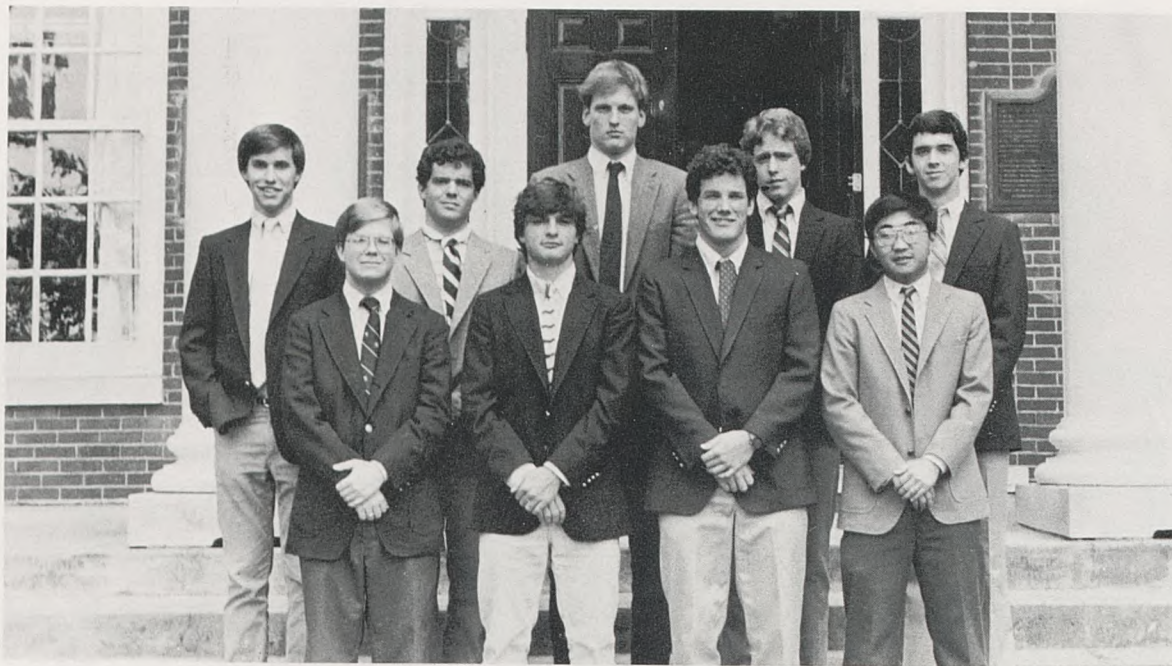

The MBA Service Club's function is to provide any service for the school or aid in worthy community projects. The club is an honorary fraternity composed of students exhibiting qualities of leadership and service. Under the leadership of President John Moore, Vice-president Scott O'Neal, and Secretary-Treasurer Bryan Lewis, the 1983-84 Service Club strove very hard to help to aid the school in athletic events, student testing, etc.

In the fall, the club provided the ushers for the home football games and helped in the preparations for the Spaghetti Supper and Homecoming. The Service Club also helped with the Shrine Paper Sale. During the winter, the Service Club again kept busy. This time, they aided in setting up the gym for all basketball games and in cleaning up afterwards. The Service Club also helped with the concessions stand, the regional debate tournament and the freshman wrestling tournament. Later, in the spring, the club sponsored two dances and a paper drive on Palm Sunday. Overall the ambitions of the Service Club were high, but the members indeed were equal to the task.

Cum Laude

On April 24, the MBA Cum Laude Society inducted thirteen new members at a ceremony held in Wallace Hall. The initiation marked the third year of MBA's participation in Cum Laude, a nationwide honorary fraternity that recognizes outstanding academic achievement of high school students, faculty, and friends. The organization, founded in 1906, is centered around the motto "Arete, Dike, Time," which translates into "Excellence, Justice, and Honor." Up to fifteen percent of each senior class is eligible for membership. In this year's induction, members-in-course Sam Chang and John Edwards gave the scriptural reading and benediction. Honorary member Nelson C. Andrews delivered the Cum Laude Address. Then the new members were announced and presented with Cum Laude pins. Six seniors were initiated: Jeff Gaw, Brent Graham, Tommy Oliphant, Tony Rafalowski, and Griffin Vincent. Six juniors joined them: John Bauman, David Chickey, Buzz Frahn, Scott Garfinkel, Pat Rau, and Chris Zanone. Also inducted was a new honorary member, Jack Massey, chosen because of his extraordinary service to the school.

Chorus

The 1983-84 version of the Montgomery Bell Academy Chorus once again, as in years past, brought much praise and respect to the school. Although few in number, the members possessed an enthusiasm which allowed them to perform numbers that many larger choirs would not attempt. The chorus, characterized by much energy and many humorous antics, was not merely singers singing songs, but a group of performers illustrating their material. Because of the nature of this chorus, it garnered many names throughout the year—the most popular being “Merf and the Magictones.”

Once again, the chorus master was the very talented and renowned Gerald Arthur. Through his leadership, the chorus made giant strides throughout the year and became a truly “professional” group.

The winter was the time for the chorus’ annual holiday season tour. The tour consisted of performances at St. Cecelia, St. Bernard, MBA, and three performances at the Centennial Club. Then, in the spring, the chorus performed at the Father-Son Banquet, in a traditional show with the Harpeth Hall Chorus.

Indeed, the chorus once again upheld the tradition it has made for itself in the Nashville community and represented MBA well.

Cheerleaders

Row 1: A. Dale, B. Stein, B. Oldham, T. Tully, S. Simmons, S. Morris, K. Sanders, Row 2: M. Pollack, G. Lackey, A. Jones, J. Enkema, M. Hardcastle, D. Wood, G. Asher.

The football season got off to an early start for the cheerleaders with their annual retreat to MTSU, home of the summer Cheerleader Training Camp. Upon their return, the cheerleaders continued to work hard in preparation for a hopeful season. As in the past, Mr. Carter and Dr. Thomas led the cheerleading force to a level of expertise.

The cheerleaders motivated the Big Red Spirit by their traditional pep rallies and their unique and personal enthusiasm. Along with the football players and great speakers, the cheerleaders fired up the student body with their grunts, shouts, and original cheers.

All in all, the cheerleaders, aided by a winning season and a journey to the Butter Bowl, led a resurgence of Big Red Spirit.

Outing Club

Although the Outing Club went on only four trips in 1983-84, it took new strides in providing some much-needed environmental education to its participants.

After beginning the year with a September caving trip in Tennessee, the Outing Club spent the rest of the year on the Appalachian Trail in North Carolina, Tennessee, and Georgia. In October, the Club took on a grueling twenty mile section of A.T. from Devil's Fork Gap to Allen Gap in Tennessee/North Carolina with beautiful fall colors at their height. In November, the club moved South to Max Patch Mountain, a marvelous southern Appalachian Bald, to begin a wonderful trip in the shadow of the Smokies, going to Davenport Gap. Bringing an early close to the year in February was an exciting trip in Georgia beginning at Hightower Gap on a remote mountain road, going over Springer Mountain.

Hopefully, in the club of 1984-85, new leadership will emerge from the Outing Club's Membership and continue attempts to educate the MBA student body about mountain and other ecosystems while providing an enjoyable atmosphere for learning.

Big Red Club

The student body, more or less.

This year's Big Red Club, under the guidance of officers Gary Asher, Chris Guzikowski, John Harrison, and Scott O'Neal, maintained its reputation as one of the most popular organizations on campus. Boasting no requirements for membership, the club had no problem again in maintaining its magnitude.

The Big Red Club helped again this year to sustain high school spirit and promoted the rollicking and (at times) rowdy spirit along with performing its traditional duties at Homecoming. 1983's Homecoming Dance was the first to make a profit, and Mr. Carter and Dr. Thomas did a superb job as faculty advisors. It was, to say the least, a successful year.

Debate

Succeeding Thomas E. Sullivan as debate and speech coach, Billy Tate, who distinguished himself for many years by coaching at Selma High School, has continued the tradition of excellence in his first year at Montgomery Bell Academy. This year the school will send six students to compete in the National Speech and Debate Tournament to be held in June on the campus of Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. The top varsity team of Sam Chang and Griffin Vincent won the Tennessee District Tournament in February, and the team of Paul Kahlon and Niku Wasudev placed first in the State Tournament held in April. Scott Carey and Tony Rafalowski won state championships in original oratory and extemporaneous speaking respectively. Scott and Tony are the first students in MBA history to qualify for the national tournament in individual speaking events.

The debators compiled a list of fine performances in nationally prestigious tournaments throughout the year. In January, MBA hosted the Southern Bell Forum II, one of the finest and best-run tournaments in the country, with teams from throughout the country. The tournament greatly aided MBA's reputation as a school which takes debate seriously, and all the aid of the administration was greatly appreciated by the debate team. Despite the loss of team leaders Sam and Griffin, the squad promises to continue the custom of winning debate teams under rising senior Tommy Outlaw and rising juniors Robert Harris and Madison Laird. Hopefully, this year's showing at the NFL Nationals will continue MBA's past great success at the tournament (including a fourth place showing in '82 and an eighth place finish in '83). Regardless of this finish, however, the team will continue to excel.

Art

Somewhat paradoxical at first glance, the Art room at MBA, at different periods of the day, presents several different and diverse settings for the prospective art students. First period is characterized by few students, quiet, slow classical music, and frantic art history students getting the last glance of the slide for the test; while eighth period sees a hoard of people, energy, 91 Rock, and conservation. This difference in settings is appealing to the MBA student trying to "escape," because Art provides a place for one's own creativity and individuality not found on a daily basis in other areas of the campus.

This year's Art program has been most successful, with many students taking part for the first time. Their talents and achievements were displayed at the end of the year at the Student Art Show one of the largest shows of its type since the late '50s, the students displaying their diversity in skills and techniques with over eighty works displayed.

This growth in interest in art at MBA is optimistic and should continue over the next years of MBA.

Bell Ringer

The 1983-84 BELL RINGER has again taken great steps forward in the investigation, reporting, and presenting of news at Montgomery Bell Academy. With a declared purpose to make this year's paper the best ever, the editors, Bryan Hassel at the helm, and Chris Kelley and Chris Guzikowski assisting, proved themselves able of producing a quality product.

The paper's size increased, and the quality of the material within did as well. Taking control of the entertainment section, Chris Kelley utilized unique and interesting layout techniques to produce an eye-catching section, while the front page featured stories of interest to all. The sports section, as always, remained an area of great interest and sports editor Jeff Gaw insured that it was always filled with dynamic features. Other editors who provided valuable time and effort included Tommy Oliphant as business chief, Drew Moore on copy, and Andy Brown on the photographs beat. Next year's paper will indeed have to be a superior publication to live up to the standards generated by the quality of the 1983-84 BELL RINGER.

Archives

This year marked the appearance of the second annual issue of ARCHIVES, the literary magazine of Montgomery Bell Academy. The staff consisting of editors Bryan Hassel and Tony Rafalowski and art editor Bill Treanor, worked closely to assemble a publication which would reflect the thought and creative efforts of the student body. The editors benefited greatly from the invaluable advice of Mrs. Cathy Hightower, advisor, and Mr. Jim Womack, who helped in bringing together the art contributions for the magazine. Thanks to the assistance and guidance of Mr. Bud Francis and the skillful artists of Francis and Lusky Co., ARCHIVES, which was expanded in order to accomodate the many entries in fiction, poetry, and art, retained its now characteristic air of professionalism. It is hoped that, after many years without a regular student magazine of creative writing and art, an enduring literary tradition has been established at MBA with the advent of ARCHIVES.

SADD

This year a group of concerned students began to meet informally to discuss the problem of teenage drinking and driving. After several informal meetings they developed a concrete plan to found a SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) chapter at MBA. Led by senior Greg Turner, several meetings open to all interested students were held in the Roberts Room. At these meetings, advised by John Bennett, the students discussed possible projects to combat drunk driving. The group decided that education should be its main focus. They also decided to become involved in the Nashville

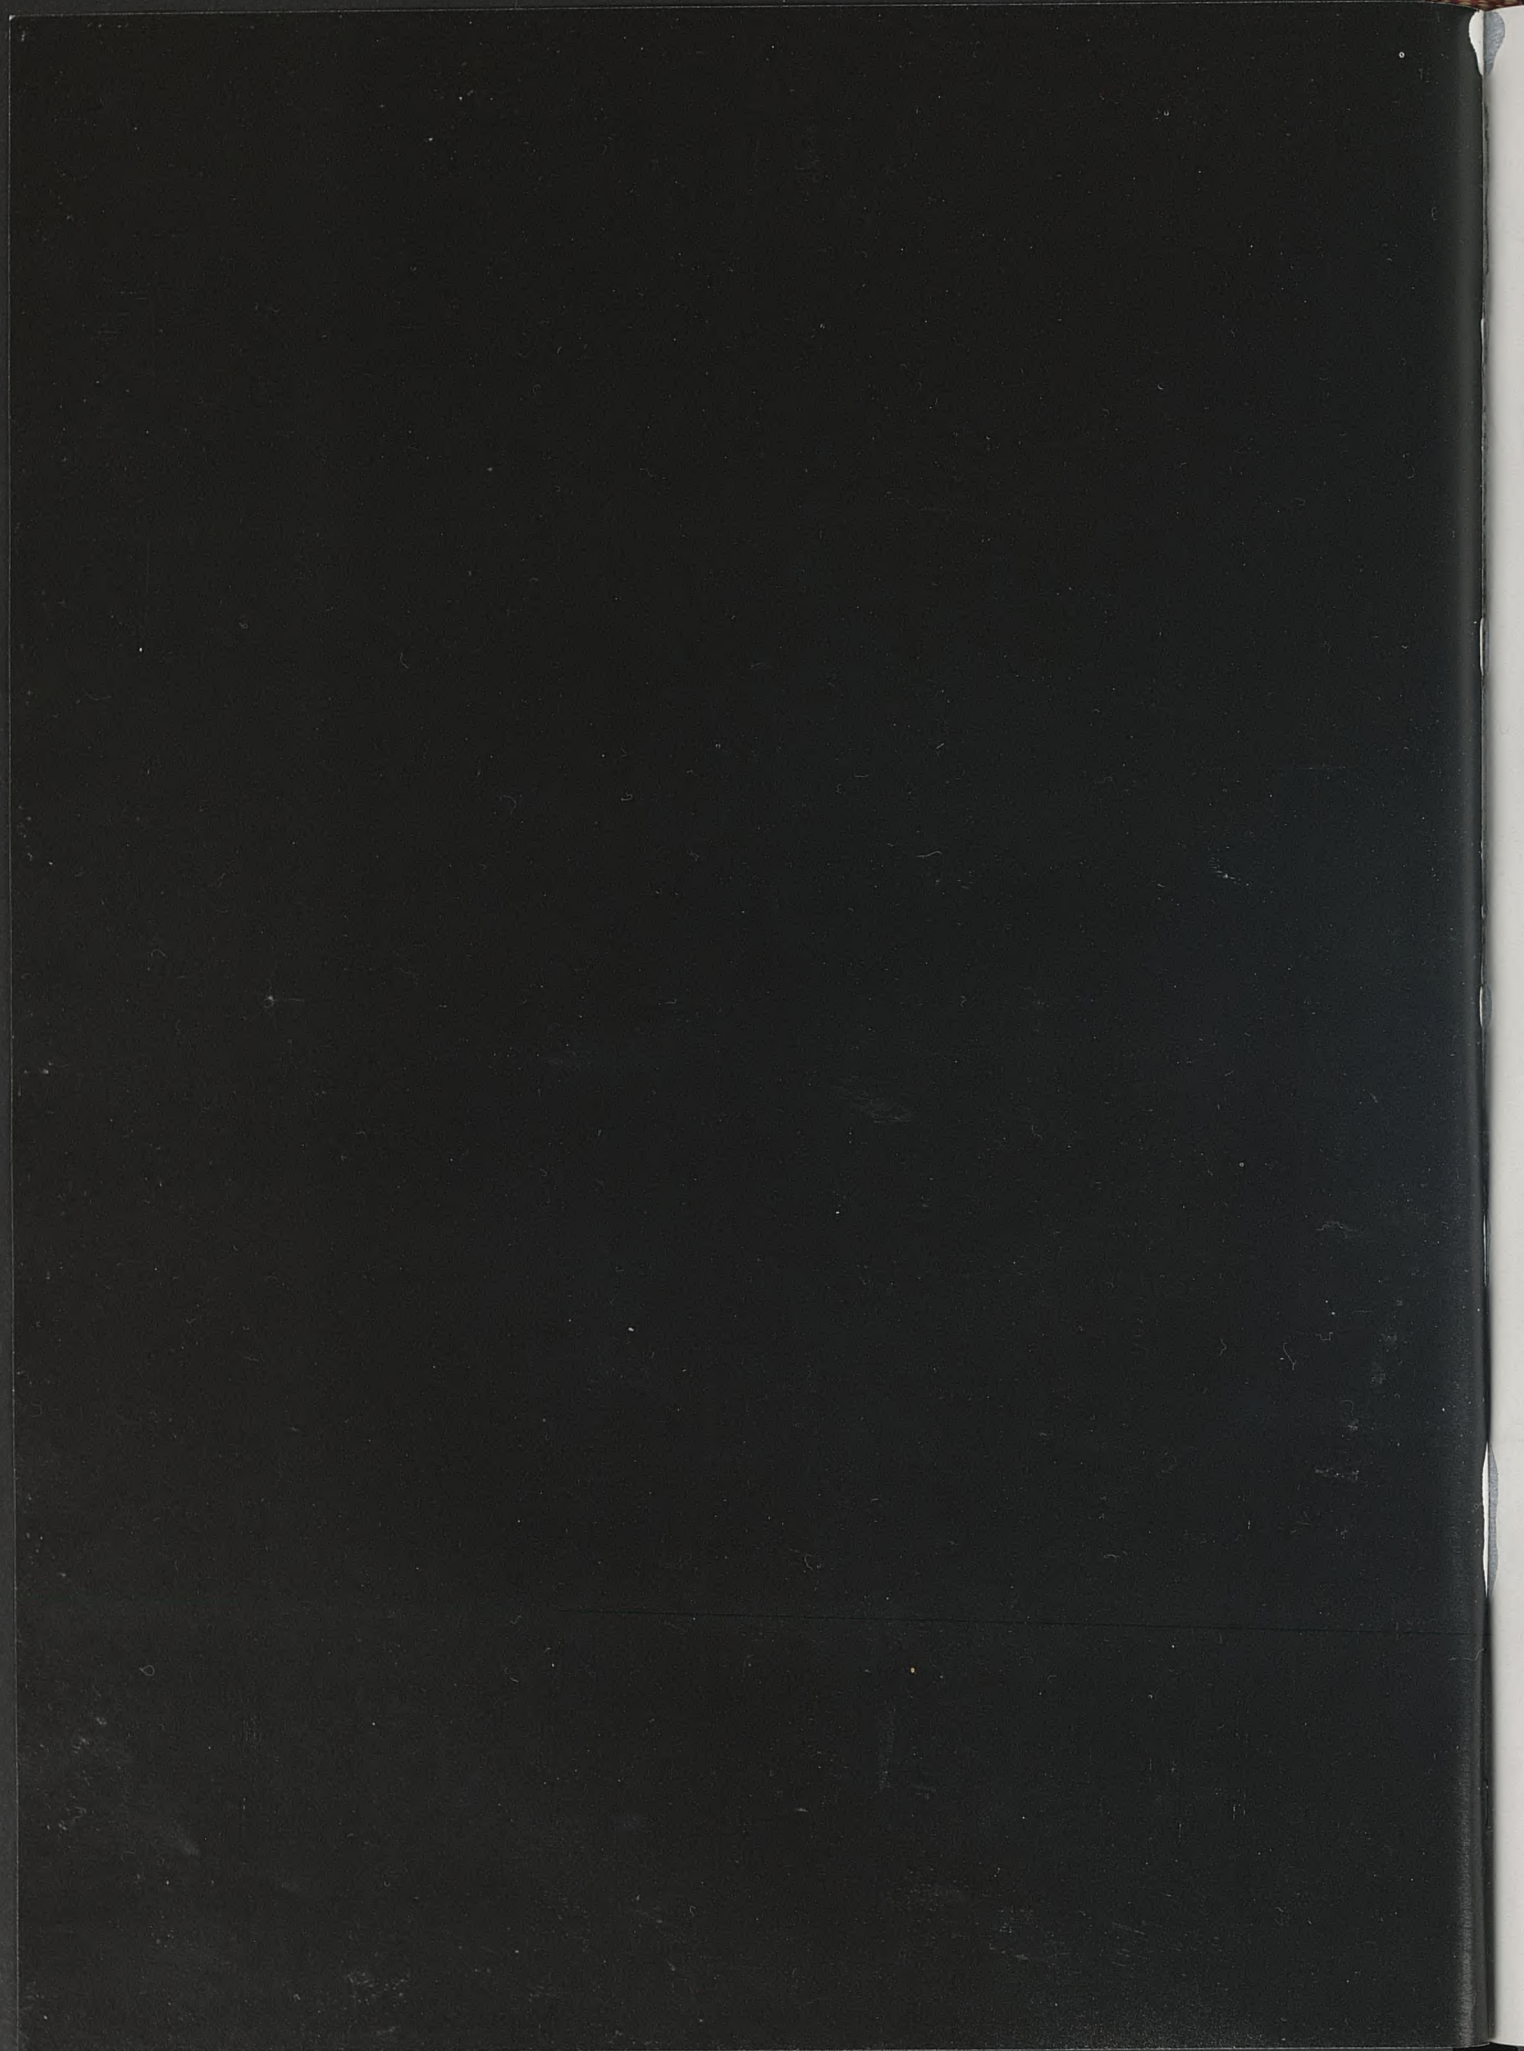

Youth Network's safe rides program. In this plan, students stationed by a phone will go pick up and take home a person who is drunk or whose ride is drunk. The project of education was divided into two areas, parent education and student education. Other ideas under consideration include parent-student contracts and student-student contracts. In view of the tremendous support of the student body, SADD members are optimistic about the next year, as they prepare to materialize these projects.

CONCLUSION

Commencement

As spring came to a close, so did the 1983-84 Montgomery Bell Academy school year. On Saturday, June 2, Mr. Bondurant presided over the ceremonies of the one-hundred seventeenth commencement which took place in the Brown Lee O. Curry gymnasium.

For the graduating seniors, those last few weeks were finally over. The final themes were written; the final tests were taken; and the exams were finished. Commencement brought with it for most seniors the end of a very important part of their lives. For the underclassmen, commencement was the completion of yet one more year in their education at M.B.A., a seemingly endless process would culminate for them some day in the future.

The program began with the "marching" of the underclassmen into the gym, followed by the "march" of the seniors. Then, Parish Lentz gave the invocation which was followed by the speech of the salutatorian Sam Chang. Next came the valedictory speech of Bryan Hassel. Following these speeches, the special awards and academic awards, along with the certificates to the graduating eighth graders, were given. After the awards came the grand finale, the presentation of diplomas to the seniors. The Alma Mater was sung, followed by a benediction by John Harrison, ending the 1983-1984 school year.

The Year at a Glance

Sept. 1	REGISTRATION—summer is over, time to begin summer reading
Sept. 2	SPRINGFIELD GAME—football season and the strong tradition of pre and post-game celebrations begin
Sept. 6	CLASSES BEGIN—new year begins, depression sets in for the first time in three months
Sept. 18	Arthur has a “Jim Dandy” time
Oct. 14	HOMECOMING—spaghetti supper flourishes but where is Ross?
Dec. 16	CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS—Dr. Niemeyer wins. There is no Santa Claus.
Jan. 3	CLASSES BEGIN (again)—students return from holidays with great exuberance and zeal to study
Jan. 13	EXAMS BEGIN—a very curious smell permeates study hall, exams become a true test of endurance and fortitude
Jan. 24	SECOND SEMESTER BEGINS—a bewildered student body returns from exams to find the unexpected appearance of a new speech teacher, Mr. H. Edmunds White
Mar. 8	SPRING BREAK—mass exodus of seniors to Ft. Lauder (and everything else) dale
Mar. 9	Soccer team leaves for Florida. Psycho Sloan, eager to find love and sunshine, tries to run over dumptruck and fails.
Mar. 19	CLASSES BEGIN (again)—students return from spring break, seniors now lead with orange hair
Mar. 23	Mr. Drake gives the annual “don’t give up yet” speech. Seniors are urged to continue to strive for excellence.
Mar. 24	END OF THREE WEEKS—study hall list reveals that 35 diligent, hard-working seniors are now deficient.
Apr. 15	COLLEGE REPLIES—seniors now thoroughly dazed and confused
Apr. 16	Appearance of buck-buck, new interclass rivalries evolve.
Apr. 17	Administration decides to call a halt to buck-buck. No more fun on the Hill.
Apr. 30	COLLEGE CHOICES DUE—nothing funny about this
May 23	SECOND SEMESTER EXAMS—dreams of summer run rampant among student body
June 2	COMMENCEMENT—question of “where is the chorus?” circulates at exercise as school year is officially concluded
June 8	The Year at a Glance hastily written to meet a last minute deadline.

Editor's Note

We began this undertaking last fall with a great deal of enthusiasm and a tremendous lack of awareness of the scope of the project which awaited us. The first several deadlines, however, brought reality as the term "all-nighter" assumed a new dimension. The drudgery of collecting senior action shots and of laying out class pages was accompanied by the sheer exhilaration of getting deadlines turned in. During the year, we hopefully developed improved editorial and managerial abilities, while honing our frisbee-throwing and lock-picking skills.

One will note several changes in this year's BELL. The book is organized differently than in recent years, unifying sports in one section and campus activities in another. An innovative "newspaper" section at the end of LIFE has been added, and the popular "Year at a Glance" has been revived. Significant, but not apparent to the reader, is the BELL's first ever utilization of wordprocessing to produce the final copy of all the articles you have, or (more likely) have not read.

It is our belief that we had one of the better groups of editors in recent years. Under pressure, the staffs came through just about whenever something was needed and supported us in times of trouble and boredom. Great thanks to:

—Phil Robinson and the photography staff for their unwavering responsibility in insuring that all pictures were taken and printed in quality form.

—Samuel "An Emergency Came Up" Chang for mediating all arguments (or discussions), staying late to type, organizing all frisbee games, and doing any other work that needed to be done.

—Brent Graham and the rest of the copy staff for all of the hours they spent on the computer typing.

—John Rawlings and Hal Rather for a GREAT job as our Archivists (or slaves).

—Cooper Lilly and Arshad Khan for getting all of the articles turned in.

—Andy Brown for coming over and printing whenever we were in a jam.

—Harry Payne and the rest of the business staff for selling the ads.

—Walter, Jim, Tom C. and all others who came over when things got desperate. Thanks guys and good luck next year.

—all the staffs and everyone else who helped. We couldn't have done it without you.

Fit for the Future.

Perseverance. Striving for what is better. Challenging the status quo. Hospital Corporation of America is committed to improving health care. Trying what hasn't been tried. Doing what hasn't been done. All to find new ways of providing quality care at a reasonable cost. Because, in the long run, bettering the human condition is the greatest good any individual or group can achieve. Hospital Corporation of America salutes Montgomery Bell Academy for its commitment to excellence in shaping the future of its students.

And we extend our congratulations to the graduates of the class of 1984.

A Very Fitting Solution

That very handsome garment you select at the Oxford Shop may be the exact cut, fabric and color to suit you. And it may be a perfect fit as is.

If not, it soon will be, at the hands of our expert tailoring staff. Their expertise in alterations can make your selection look as though it was made for you. But there's more. Later if you lose or gain a few pounds, fabric permitting, we'll alter the garment to fit again.

And all alterations are included in the original price of the garment.

You'll find a very fitting solution to any alterations problem at 2308 West End Avenue and 4001 Hillsboro Road in Green Hills

NFIB Speaks for America's Biggest Business... Small Business.

NFIB — the National Federation of Independent Business — brings the concerns and opinions of small and independent business owners to Congress, the federal agencies, the White House and all 50 state capitals.

NFIB is one of America's largest membership organizations... nearly 600,000 strong.

We don't take our positions lightly. Members are polled regularly on issues affecting their businesses. The majority response is the position NFIB lobbyists carry from the grass-roots membership directly to federal and state lawmakers.

And we don't stop there. NFIB is a research organization too. NFIB Quarterly Economic Reports accurately predict trends in the nation's employment, Gross National Product and inflation.

In recent months, we've published special studies on small business banking and credit, the major problems and priorities of the small and independent business owner, the special concerns of small business people in urban areas, and more.

Small business is America's biggest business, employing more than half the non-government workforce and producing almost half the GNP.

Small business owners are active in civic and political affairs. And we represent more of them than any other organization.

That is why... when America's lawmakers hear from NFIB, they know they've heard from American business.
